GAINESVILLE, FLORIDA, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1909

TEN CENTS A WEEK

EFFORT TO HAVE SEMI-NOLES LEAVE FLORIDA

Chief Tiger Tail Will Visit the West Next Summer and Others May Follow.

MAMI, Fla., Oct. 27.—That a portion of the Seminole tribe of Indians be induced to forsake their primitive hunting grounds in the Everglades by messengers from the State in the West, and follow them to the more civilized life of the reservation in the Indian Territory, seems a possibility. If the deed were done a handful of Christian Indians will have accomplished what the United States Government gave up trying to do after a quarter-century of futile and bloody struggle.

A small band from the Territorial Seminoles, who have been converted to Christianity, is now holding meetings at Jupiter, on the lower East coast, and the meetings are being attended by scores of Seminoles from different sections of the Everglades. Besides preaching the doctrines of the adopted faith, the visiting Indians are urging their Florida brethren to forsake the alligator trail of the Everglades and the hunting rifle and follow them to the tilled fields of the plow of the reservation.

Tiger Tail Going West.

Chief Tiger Tail, who is reputed to be one of the wealthiest members of the Florida tribe, and who is an man of more than usual intellect, was in Titusville during last week in discussing the matter expressly his intention of going West next summer and trying it for himself. He likes it he will sell his belongings in Florida, and it is probable that his action would exert an influence upon other members of the tribe to follow him. The change would not be as great for him, however, as for the average tribesman, as he makes his wealth by stock raising more than by the use of his bow and arrow. He is like the majority of the Seminoles, but though some members of the tribe may follow the steel-railed trail to the reservation in the West, it is very improbable that the entire tribe can ever be induced to go in a body. It is a well-known fact that the love of his native hunting grounds is as strong in the breast of the Seminole as is the love of his native State to the Floridian.

This was well illustrated by an incident at Ft. Myers during the Indian wars of the last century. The Federal troops had captured a number of the Seminoles and were holding them at Ft. Myers for transportation by boat across the Gulf, en route to the lands allotted by the Government for the purpose.

Seminoles Are Suspicious.

In the captured party was a chief who declared that he would never leave his beloved State alive. He was kept closely guarded, however, and was allowed to reach no weapon, as it was believed that he might commit suicide. He outwitted his captors, however, and kept his promise, for when the morning came for the schooner bearing the Indians to set sail he dropped dead upon the wharf a few feet from the rail of the vessel that was to bear him away. He had secured a bottle, and crushing the glass, had swallowed the particles. The exertion caused by the walk from the prison to the wharf caused the glass to cut him internally and to cause a hemorrhage.

From the day when the Government by force of arms deported a part of the tribe and then finally gave up the capture of all remaining, the Seminole has regarded Uncle Sam with suspicion. It was the fear that the white man was but planning a ruse to get the tribe together and then capture it in its entirety that made a failure of a great gathering planned by Bishop Gray a few years ago.

Term of Court in Bradford County Was Very Brief

Attorney J. M. Rivers returned Tuesday night from Starke, where he has been in attendance at the fall session of the circuit court, Eighth Judicial Circuit.

Attorney Rivers states that this was the briefest term of the circuit court he had ever attended in Bradford county, as the docket, both civil and criminal, was very light. "I desire to extend my heartiest congratulations to Bradford county," he said, "for the people of that county have a great deal of credit for their orderly demeanor. I have been attending the sessions of the court at Starke regularly for several years, and that is the lightest docket I have ever encountered."

Col. Rivers states that there was a great deal of business before the grand jury, but out of this only three indictments, or true bills, were returned, and none of these were for capital offenses.

Alachua county congratulates her brothers of old Bradford on this clean record.

That Mysterious Malady At Athens Female College

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 27.—Regarding the epidemic of illness at the Athens Female College at Athens, which has caused a ten days' suspension of the institution, the president, Miss Mary N. Moore, who is at Bessemer, suffering from a severe cold, issued a statement yesterday which she says:

"The 175 girls in the school forty were taken sick of ptomaine poisoning from eating fish and while none of the sickness is of a serious nature it was thought best to give the holiday. To decide exactly what the sickness was, the State Bacteriologist of Tennessee came from Nashville and made a careful diagnosis and gave as his opinion that the sickness was ptomaine poisoning from eating the fish and the same report was concurred in by Dr. Cunningham Wilson of Birmingham."

BONNIE MELROSE.

MELROSE, Oct. 27.—Under the leadership of Council Commander Torlay seventeen members of Melrose Camp No. 176 went over to Waldo by boat on Monday evening to assist State Organizer C. H. Dame of Ocala to form a camp of the W. O. W. Ten members were initiated in fine shape, the work lasting until midnight. Some five or six candidates are to be put through at an early date.

The canals between Melrose and Waldo are now free from hyacinths and several of the small launches have been to Waldo without trouble.

The N. Itner property on the cove has been improved fifty per cent during the past month by the cleaning out of the underbrush and dead trees all along the shore. Mr. Miller deserves great credit for his work.

Miss Belle Hall of Orange Heights has accepted a position with L. W. Baldwin & Son.

Will Establish Kindergarten.

The Sun has been requested to announce that a kindergarten department, which will be operated under the auspices of the Gainesville Graded and High School, will be opened in the west room of the old Seminary building on Monday morning, provided the room can be placed in readiness by that time.

This department will be under the supervision of Mrs. Martinez of Van Wert, Ohio, a teacher of ability in this particular branch of education. The age limit will be from four to six, and those desiring further information may confer with either Professor W. H. Casals or Mrs. Martinez.

The fee in this department will be $2 per month, each pupil.

School Is Prospering.

Wm. F. Barry of Forest Grove was among those who came to Gainesville on business yesterday. Mr. Barry is not only an up-to-date and successful farmer, but is also interested in everything pertaining to the good of his community, being a member of the board of trustees of the Stroble school, one of the best rural educational institutions in the county. He states that the school is progressing nicely just now, the attendance averaging well.

The Episcopal Church has done much for the Seminoles, and with the hospital at Immokalee has healed the sick and suffering as well as worked for their conversion. The Bishop desired to get the tribe together at a great banquet, or gathering as an evidence of the good will of the church towards them. But the tribe could not be brought together. At the present time, however, the Indians regard the whites at Immokalee in more kindly light, for they have good cause to realize that the efforts made there are for the good of the Seminole.

Seminoles Failed to Go.

A few years ago it was planned to have a Seminole camp as an attraction at the State Fair at Tampa. Arrangements had almost been completed to bring some of the tribe to the city when it was noted about in the tribe that a troop of United States cavalry was to be at the fair. The cavalry was a crack United States troop and was there to give exhibition drills. But there was no Seminole camp at Tampa.

The Seminole has an aversion for the ways of the civilized. He prefers to pass his life in the deep fastnesses of the great Everglades and the dense hammocks of the lower Gulf Coast. He grows sweet potatoes on the rich hammock land and the paleface provides him with a ready market for the hide of the alligator and the fur of the otter. He is a son of the Everglades and in the Everglades he, as a tribe, will remain.

ORPHAN CHILDREN LOSE LIVES AT LYNCHBURG

All Were On Second Floor of Home When Fire Broke Out---Rescue Impossible.

LYNCHBURG, Va., Oct. 27.—Late yesterday afternoon the remains of the five children, who were burned in the fire which destroyed the Shelton cottage at the Presbyterian Orphan's Home, near the city at 4 o'clock yesterday morning, were recovered, although they were burned past recognition. A coroner's inquest which concluded its work at 8:15 o'clock last night, threw no light on the cause of the fire, but the verdict included a statement fully exonerating the home authorities from blame.

Later reports show that the fire was discovered by the housekeeper in her room on the second floor by passing through the speaking tube connecting her room with the kitchen. She was up to begin her duties of the day.

The five children were all inmates of the nursery.

The dead:

Lucile Moorefield and Ruby Moorefield, Lynchburg; Mamie Reynolds, Bath county, Virginia; Marie Hickman, Campbell county, Virginia, and Mary Poole, Davis, W. Va.

The children were all in the second floor of the wing of the building and they were caught by the fire in a manner that made their rescue impossible. Ruby Moorefield, however, was taken out of the building, but when she ascertained that the younger sister was still inside, she ran back into the burning building and lost her life.

The fire was discovered by Mrs. Priest, the cook, who was aroused by the roar of the flames. When she saw that it was impossible to get the children out by the stairway, the entire basement and first floor at that time enveloped, and it would be but a few minutes before the whole building would fall, she rushed to the third story and brought fifteen children down to the second floor, leading them to the veranda top, where they were taken down a ladder, several of them dropping into the outstretched arms of the older boys in the institution.

When these children were all safe, Mrs. Priest had to jump for her life, and in so doing sustained a dislocated shoulder, a scalp wound and an injury to her back. She will probably recover. While all of the escapes were miraculous, only one of the girls rescued was injured, and she escaped with a sprained ankle, sustained in jumping. Dr. R. H. Fleming, the superintendent, was away at the time of the fire, and there were no men about except some distance away in the farm houses. When they reached the burning structure it was too late to save the little tots. The women could not save them, for they barely succeeded in saving twenty-four of the other girls.

He Likes Gainesville.

Among the clever traveling men in the city is W. H. Beaven, representing the Wesco Supply Company, electrical supplies, St. Louis, who came on business connected with the Gainesville Electric Light and Power Company. Mr. Beaven is so well pleased with Gainesville that he has decided to make this city his headquarters while in this section of the State. He paid the city a high compliment in the remark that "it looked like the most substantial town" he had visited in this section of the South so far.

Spent Another's Money; Will Go to Convict Camp

Because he insisted on misappropriating funds which had been entrusted to him by a friend, Enoch Molby, colored, who was arraigned in Justice Carter's court in Newberry upon a charge of embezzlement, was adjudged guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and costs, or spend three months in the "gang." With a dark financial cloud hovering about him, Molby was unable to raise the amount necessary for the fine and costs, and was brought to this city Wednesday by Deputy Sheriff Wynne, and in the event that he will still be unable to pay within five days, the time prescribed by law, he will be taken to the convict camps.

The prosecution witness in this case was Jesse Palmer, who declared he gave Molby money with which to make certain purchases for him, when the defendant appropriated the money to his own "needs and pleasure."

Molby will probably learn a lesson from this experience, and will know better than to spend another fellow's "dough" the next time he is entrusted with it.

Heart Disease Claims Gen. O. O. Howard at 79

BURLINGTON, Vt., Oct. 27.—Gen. Oliver O. Howard, last of the Union commanders of the Civil War, died at his home in this city last night. Heart disease was the cause of the noted soldier's death. He was 79 years old.

Last week Gen. Howard was in Ontario delivering his lecture on Abraham Lincoln. His last public appearance was at London, on Sunday night. On Monday he returned to his home in Burlington, and was apparently in his usual good health. Last night, while sitting in a chair at his home, he was attacked by heart disease and was dead when a physician reached the house.

Including Gen. Howard's service in the Indian wars, he was probably in more engagements than any other officer in the United States army. He was born in Leeds, Me., November 8, 1829.

OWEN'S CASE AGAIN POSTPONED BY COURT

ANOTHER RESPITE GRANTED BY
DELAY IN PROCEEDINGS.

Motion for New Trial on Writ of Error Should Have Been Argued on Tuesday.

R. H. Owen, tried and convicted for the murder of R. L. Smith in the western section of this county at the spring term of the circuit court, and who has been twice so near death's door that he could hear the creaking of the hinges, has again been respited, the result of some clever maneuvering on the part of Attorneys Baker and Broome, who are representing the interests of the condemned man, now in the Duval county jail at Jacksonville.

The story of Owen and his crime is too fresh in the minds of the people of Alachua county to require reproduction, as it has been published and republished in The Sun. Suffice it to say that Owen was tried by a fair and impartial jury, and was convicted of murder in the first degree, without recommendation to mercy of the court. He was sentenced to be hanged, and the date set for the execution was July 9, on Friday. At the last moment, however, a reprieve of two weeks was granted, which set the second date Friday, July 23.

The attorneys for the defense were active, however, and the night preceding the date set for the second execution, when it looked black for Owen, a second reprieve came pending a writ of error in the court proceedings, and feeling run so high here that the man was taken to Jacksonville, in order to prevent a possible lynching.

Attorneys Baker and Broome on October 15 filed a motion for a new trial, on the ground of writ of error, and on Tuesday, the 26th inst., this motion was to have been argued before the supreme court.

Attorney-General Park Trammell withdrew his original motion in this case, which asked that the court dismiss the appeal and affirm the judgment and decision of the lower court, which found the defendant guilty and sentenced him to be hanged.

This case has attracted a great deal of attention throughout the State, and the outcome is being watched with considerable interest. Attorneys Baker and Broome, who were appointed by the State and have worked without compensation, have been very active in Owen's behalf, and should they succeed in staying the sentence of the circuit court, they will have accomplished a well-earned point.

The notice received from Attorney-General Trammell provides for a hearing, or argument, on November 2. In the meantime, Owen will remain in the Duval county jail.

Owen was rather weak physically just prior to being removed from this city to the Duval county jail, but his condition seems to be much improved now, and he is said to possess about the "healthiest appetite" of any prisoner within the confines of the prison. He has evidently been encouraged by the continued delay in disposing of his case, which means the saving of his neck from time to time.

An Early Morning Fire.

An alarm of fire was turned in from Box 28, at the corner of West Court and North Pleasant streets, at 1:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, which summoned the department to a cabin on North Grove street owned by James Carolina, colored, but unoccupied.

The fire had been burning for some time before the alarm was turned in, hence the cabin was enveloped in flames when the hose companies arrived. The firemen were successful, however, in extinguishing the flames before the building was entirely destroyed, although only the roof and a portion of the walls were left standing.

The shack was an old one and of little value. The origin of the fire is unknown, as no one had occupied the place as a residence for some time.

A HALLOWEEN PARTY.

B. Y. P. U. Will Have Big Time
Friday Evening.

The members of the Baptist Young People's Union are anticipating a big time Friday evening, the 29th inst., when they will gather at the home of Mrs. Jesse R. Emerson, West Masonic street, by special invitation. Mrs. Emerson requests The Sun to extend a cordial invitation to all members of the society, who are requested to come "robed in the form of a ghost."

It goes without saying that there will be a bushel of fun for everybody at this unique entertainment.

A Clever Knight of the Grip.

Thomas W. Lyons of Savannah is in the city, and is pleasantly domiciled at the Brown House. Mr. Lyons, who is one of the cleverest fellows on the road, is representing Snowdrift Hogless Lard, which product is made in Savannah and has become quite popular in this country. Nothing but the cotton plant is employed in its manufacture, and that is the reason the manufacturers speak with such impunity on its cleanliness and purity.

Ignited From Combustible Material.

Special Agent Chas. Pinkson of the Atlantic Coast Line returned yesterday from Wolfenden's mill, near Worthington Springs, where he went to investigate the burning of an empty freight car a few nights recently. The car was standing on the Wolfenden tram road, or spur, when it was suddenly ignited. Mr. Pinkson concluded that the fire was the result of combustion of a material contained in the car.

A Banquet

Spread before you would do you no good if you couldn't eat. What good can food do a child when as soon as it enters its stomach it is eaten by worms. That's the reason your baby is ailing, cross, pasty-faced and thin. Give it White's Cream Vermifuge. It will expel the worms and act as a tonic for the child. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Mrs. Bashaw Is Improving.

Friends of Mrs. Georgie Bashaw, who is confined in the hospital in Jacksonville as the result of an operation, will be gratified to learn that her condition is improving, and that the chances are she will be enabled to return home within the next few days. Her sister, Miss Ora Seagle, who went to Jacksonville Sunday, returned with a most encouraging report.

LOCHLOOSA NEWS.

Misses Anna and Selma Tompkins Entertain in Charming Manner.

LOCHLOOSA, Oct. 27.—M. A. Mussewhite made a business trip to Island Grove Friday.

A. C. Hayman made a business trip to Hawthorn Thursday.

W. P. Tompkins made a business trip to Gainesville Thursday.

J. D. Caldwell went to Hawthorn Thursday.

F. M. Coleman, the merchant, visited Jacksonville Thursday.

J. N. Hayman, the efficient deputy sheriff and merchant; J. C. Hayman, S. A. L. depot agent, and J. O. Hayman, who runs the pump for the water tank, all took in Jacksonville Saturday.

Y. Z. Taylor of Largo spent a few days with friends here last week.

W. O. Sykes of Island Grove was over last week on business.

Many of the Island Grove people attend preaching here nearly every night.

Rev. B. T. Rape started a revival protracted meeting Sunday which will run one week. He is meeting with fair success so far.

J. R. Tompkins made a business visit to Micanopy last week.

W. F. Caraway shipped three crates of beans last week, they being the first to leave this place this season.

J. W. Metzger shipped quite a few crates of oranges Wednesday. They were nice, and colored up fine. These are the first oranges to leave here for the Northern markets this fall.

No rain yet. No fall gardens planted yet, is the cry of the people in this section of Alachua. Things are awfully in need of rain in this section. Even cane is wilting.

O. R. Green has two log carts steady at work hauling pine logs to town for shipment to Jacksonville. He will ship several carloads this week.

Misses Anna and Selma Tompkins entertained quite a large crowd of the young folks Friday evening in the way of a card party. Quite a nice crowd was present. Many games were played and after the games refreshments were served of a most delicious nature—candies of all description, punch, oranges, cane juice, fudge, and many other delicacies. About 10:15 o'clock the crowd bid their hostesses good night and departed, thanking them for the pleasant evening.

R. O. McEwen, who is working at Zubar, Fla., spent a few days last week here with his mother, Mrs. S. F. McEwen.

Y. M. Hulme and brother of Hawthorn were in town last week on business.

Adger Hayman spent last Sunday with friends at Johnson station.

Imperfect Digestion

Means less nutrition and in consequence less vitality. When the liver fails to secrete bile, the blood becomes loaded with bilious properties, the digestion becomes impaired and the bowels constipated. Herbine will rectify this; it gives tone to the stomach, liver and kidneys, strengthens the appetite, clears up the complexion, infuses new life and vigor to the whole system. 50 cents a bottle. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Popular Savannah Firm.

Attention is called to the change of advertisement of B. H. Levy, Bro. & Co., the clothiers and furnishers of Savannah, which appears elsewhere in this issue. This is one of the oldest and most reliable firms in the South, and the fact that they have been carrying an advertisement every fall and winter in The Sun is evidence of two things—first, the firm enjoys a good trade throughout this section, and second, The Sun brings results as an advertising medium.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY

The Value of Good Digestion

Is easy to figure if you know what your stomach is worth. Kodol keeps the stomach at par value, by insuring good digestion. Kodol cures Dyspepsia.

Kodol insures good digestion by absolutely duplicating Nature's normal process, in perfectly digesting all food taken into the stomach.

While Kodol is doing this, the stomach is resting—and becoming strong and healthy. A strong and healthy stomach guarantees a sound and active brain.

The man with a sound stomach—a stomach that is doing for the body just what Nature intended it to do—is the man who is always prepared for any emergency. He is "there with the goods."

The man with a sick stomach, is a man sick all over. When the stomach is irritated by undigested food, the blood and heart are directly affected. Then dullness, unnatural sleepiness, sick-headaches, vertigo and fainting spells, and even serious brain trouble develop. Kodol will prevent these.

Spurring the stomach and brain to special effort by "tonics" and "stimulants" doesn't cure anything, or accomplish any good. Neither does dieting. Indigestion and the serious ailments which it induces can be averted and corrected only by natural means.

Kodol supplies this natural means. It performs the stomach's work for it—just as the stomach should perform it—while the stomach takes a little rest, "for the stomach's sake."

Our Guarantee

Go to your druggist today and get a dollar bottle. Then after you have used the entire contents of the bottle if you can honestly say, that it has not done you any good, return the bottle to the druggist and he will refund your money without question or delay. We will then pay the druggist for the bottle. Don't hesitate, all druggists know that our guarantee is good. This offer applies to the large bottle only and to but one in a family. The large bottle contains 2½ times as much as the fifty-cent bottle.

Kodol is prepared at the laboratories of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.

TAMPA AUTOISTS SELECT THIS ROUTE

ENDURANCE RACE WILL RUN
NORTH VIA GAINESVILLE.

Representatives of Gainesville Association Attended Meeting at Tampa.

The Gainesville route has been chosen by the Tampa Automobile Club as the official route for the endurance race, which was to have been pulled off on November 4, but which was postponed until the 23rd, at the meeting of the club and other autoists of the State at Tampa Tuesday night.

This information came by wire from A. M. Cushman, of the Gainesville Automobile Association, who, with Dr. J. H. Alderman, Major W. Thomas, W. N. Wilson, and B. F. Hampton, attended the meeting Tuesday night and insisted on Gainesville's right to be declared the official route from Tampa to the North Florida metropolis.

The message from Mr. Cushman is brief, but to the point, and most satisfactory. It stated that the official route from Tampa would be via Gainesville and the road posted by the Gainesville Automobile Association, and returning the autoists would take the East Coast route via Daytona, DeLand, Sanford, Orlando, etc.

Posting the Road.

Immediately upon receipt of the telegram from Tampa a party in charge of George I. Doig left the city with an abundance of signs which had been prepared for the purpose and posted the road thoroughly between this city and Jacksonville. The party was met by Judge Syd L. Carter, who started in his machine from Jacksonville, and the road was posted by sun down of Wednesday. The Gainesville Automobile Company will also post the road between Gainesville and the Marion county line in ample time for the information and convenience of those who enter the endurance run.

NEWS OF CITY AND COUNTY CONDENSED

Hives, eczema, itch or salt rheum sets you crazy. Can't bear the touch of your clothing. Doan's Ointment cures the most obstinate cases. Why suffer. All druggists sell it.

Miss Annie Scarratt has returned from an outing of several months to points in Maryland, New York and other States. Her many friends are delighted to welcome her home.

Mrs. Thornton B. Stringfellow and children returned yesterday from Opelika, Ala., where they have been visiting relatives for the past few weeks. Friends are glad to welcome them home again.

Dr. F. S. Roux of Williston is in the city on a brief visit to relatives and friends. Dr. Roux is a recent graduate of the Atlanta Dental College, and is enjoying a fine practice in his profession at Williston.

J. J. Haymans, the naval stores operator of Lochloosa, is in the city on a brief visit to his family. Mr. Haymans is possessed of a genial disposition and his presence always makes his friends feel better.

S. H. Dempsey returned yesterday from a pleasant visit to relatives and friends in his old home, Chicago, where he has been for the past two weeks. He reports a good time—"every minute"—but is glad to return to his Florida home again.

Cleveland Miller of Nahunta, Ga., after a pleasant visit to her sister, Mrs. C. E. Gibson and Miss Nizie Miller, 405 West Court street, has returned to his home. He was well pleased with Gainesville and may return here to reside at a later date.

Voyle & McColm will admit all children under 12 years of age free at the Baird Theatre tomorrow night, when accompanied by a grown person. Take your little ones out and let them see the moving pictures and Chas. Ehret, the vaudeville artist.

For a clear head, a stout heart and strong mind, DeWitt's Little Early Risers, gentle, safe, easy, pleasant, little pills. DeWitt's Carbolyzed Witch Hazel Salve is unequalled for anything where a salve is needed, and is especially good for Piles. Sold by all druggists.

The Gainesville Furniture Company—the Big Furniture Store—are advertising something in this issue which will no doubt prove of interest and benefit to Sun readers. It is the Barrett Flexible Curtain and Sash Rod, and something which must be seen to be appreciated.

Sheriff P. G. Ramsey returned yesterday from High Springs, where he went to sell the stock of C. S. Rumph, recently defunct. The stock was purchased by Mr. Markey, while the butcher's and market tools, which formed a part of the assets, were knocked down to Alex Stephens, colored.

D. M. Dean, who owns one of the largest retail stores plants in East Florida at Espanola, between Palatka and Omond, is in the city on a visit to his family, East Church street. Mr. Dean, like other naval stores operators who struck it right in a good market, is wearing the smile that won't come off.

You need not be troubled in any way with the stomach, if you will simply take Kodol at those times when you feel that you need it. Kodol is guaranteed to relieve you. If it fails your money will be refunded to you by the druggists from whom you purchase it. Try it today on this guarantee. Sold by all druggists.

H. C. Stephens, for several years a successful jeweler of High Springs, but who is now located at Lakeland, was in the city yesterday, and friends were glad to see him. He is the official division watch inspector for the Atlantic Coast Line and was here on official business, leaving for Palatka on the noon train.

Most women are troubled with kidney complaint, and you know very many serious and even fatal diseases result from these neglected kidney troubles. If you will take DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills as directed, you may be confident of good results. Try them and see how really good they are. Beware of imitations, pills that are intended to deceive you. Be sure you get DeWitt's. Sold by all druggists.

Received a Fine Dog.

If there is anyone in Alachua county, or anywhere else for that matter, who loves a dog better than Captain J. Maxey Dell, he has never been pointed out. Captain Dell has a half-dozen or more fine pointers now, but Wednesday received another. This canine, "Bob," is a fine pointer, well-trained, and was purchased from parties in Luray, Va.

The dog arrived by express on the Atlantic Coast Line noon train Wednesday, and attracted considerable attention and admiration among sportsmen who were congregated about the depot.

Captain Dell is an enthusiastic hunter, and is regarded as one of the most accurate marksmen in this section of the State, notwithstanding that he has the advantage of only one arm.

Death of Mrs. Getzen.

Information was received in this city Wednesday of the sudden death of Mrs. C. P. Getzen, which occurred at her home at Fort White at an early hour Wednesday morning.

Deceased was the mother of Mrs. J. F. Bunch of this city, and the information came as a great shock to her.

Mrs. Bunch left immediately upon receipt of the information, hence it was impossible to secure any definite information regarding the sad incident, but fuller particulars will appear in The Sun at a later date.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Bunch in her hour of bereavement.

Country is Prosperous.

Special Agent S. A. Shipman of the United States general land office has returned from Mobile and other points in Southern Alabama, where he has been on official business for the past few weeks. Mr. Shipman states that the crops have yielded well, especially cotton, and inasmuch as the staple has brought an average price of fourteen cents, the commercial conditions of the sections visited are good.

NOW SOLD IN AMERICA.

In Less Than Three Years, Parisian Sage, the Splendid Hair Tonic, Is Sold All Over America.

There is a reason for the phenomenal sale of Parisian Sage in the United States during the past three years.

And the reason is plain to all: Parisian Sage does just what it is advertised to do.

Ask W. M. Johnson about it; he will tell you that he rightly guarantees it to cure dandruff, stop falling hair or itching scalp in two weeks or money back.

There is no reason whatever why any man or woman should fail to take advantage of the above generous offer.

But one thing that has made Parisian Sage so famous is its peculiar power to turn the harsh, unattractive hair that many women possess into luxuriant and radiant hair in a short time. Women of refinement the country over are using it and it never disappoints. Read this letter:

"I procured Parisian Sage and found that it was a great hair tonic and cleanser. I have used other preparations but Parisian Sage cleaned the scalp, stopped all irritation, made my hair fluffy, silky and left no trace of stickiness as some other hair 'tonics' had."—Mrs. Sarah Sanderhoff, 1403 N. Washington street, Owosso, Mich., June 22, 1909.

Sold by leading druggists everywhere and in Gainesville by W. M. Johnson for 50 cents a large bottle. The girl with the auburn hair is on every package; mail orders filled, charges prepaid, by the American makers, Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Will Remain in Gainesville.

Among the latest arrivals in Gainesville who have come to make this their future home, is E. Meade Wilson of Pensacola, the clever special agent of the Union Central Life Insurance Company of Cincinnati, Ohio, one of the oldest and strongest companies in the United States. Mr. Wilson stated to a Sun representative yesterday that he had long had his eyes turned towards Gainesville, as it was considered in West Florida to be the leading city in the interior of the State, and he believes that is correct. He expects to remain here permanently, and has established headquarters at the White House.

DOING GOOD WORK.

Prof. P. H. Rolfs, Director of the Agricultural Experiment Station at the University of Florida, has returned from West Florida, where he was greeted by large audiences at the various Farmers' Institutes held in Escambia and other counties.

It is the general purpose of these meetings to promote understanding and co-operation between city and country, and thus hasten agricultural and commercial development, and those who attend the institutes will learn things that will give them new faith in Florida, and particularly in their own section.

Deep interest was manifested in the meetings in Escambia county, and a plan has been started to send ten boys to the University of Florida to take the course in agriculture.

Prof. Rolfs and his assistants are doing good work, and it is gratifying to The Sun to be able to note the increasing interest in the Experiment Station.

MEMORIAL EXERCISES.

Some days ago the newspapers of Wilmington, N. C., gave an account of the laying of a corner stone of a monument by the United Daughters of the Confederacy of the State to the memory of Hon. George Davis of that city, who was the brother of our friend, Judge Horatio Davis. The orator of the occasion was Col. A. M. Waddell, a distinguished son of the Old North State, and in that address he spoke in part as follows:

"No memorial has yet been erected in North Carolina to commemorate a truer patriot, a more profoundly learned jurist, a more accomplished orator and scholar or a more stainless gentleman than he whose statue will stand above the corner stone laid here today. Descended from some of the most distinguished of the original settlers of this Cape Fear country, he attained greater distinction than any of them and wore his well-earned laurels with a modesty as rare as it was unaffected.

"As he who stands at the base of a noble structure cannot by his physical eyesight take in all the architectural beauty, so we cannot by our mental vision see in their just proportions the qualities of greatness in those with whom we are brought into close and familiar contact. A little distance is necessary in the one case as in the other to get a true view.

"The people of Wilmington among whom he passed nearly his whole life were too close to Mr. Davis to realize fully the splendid proportions of his intellectual and moral character. His natural dignity and reserve were so softened by his genial and kindly spirit that the humblest of his acquaintances were among the warmest of his admirers. He was too big a man for affectations of any kind, and he was too sturdily honest to compromise his conviction on any subject; therefore, while always courteous and considerate towards those who differed with him, his judgments which were always well considered were apt to be final.

"As a lawyer deeply versed in the principles of the science he had no superior at the North Carolina Bar; as an advocate he had no equal; as a platform orator he was without a peer, and as a manly man of spotless character, and the highest ideals in every sphere of life, he was a model gentleman.

"Prior to the war Mr. Davis was a strong union man, and opposed to secession. He was trusted and honored, however, by all parties in the State and was appointed one of the Peace Commissioners to Washington in 1861, who, it was hoped, might effect a reconciliation between the two sections. Finding that this could not be done, except upon terms which the commissioners believed to be degrading and dishonorable to the State, he returned and delivered his message to that effect to the people of this city, who assembled in a vast crowd to hear him. No one who attended that meeting can ever forget it, for the speech he made. It was a masterly discussion of the situation and a splendid display of his powers, and when that crowd dispersed there was no longer any division of sentiment as to the necessity of preparing for self-defense and the preservation of the constitutional liberty. The only other speech of his that I shall mention was that delivered in the opera house in 1868, when the carpet-bag gentry were ruling and robbing the people of the State. That was the greatest speech of his life and was pronounced by competent judges to be the most brilliant one ever delivered in North Carolina.

"Mr. Davis, as you all know, was Senator and later the Attorney-General of the Confederate States in both of which positions he won the unqualified respect of his associates, and the affectionate confidence of the President. He was the honored friend of Robert E. Lee, for that greatest of Americans recognized in him the same lofty moral traits which ennobled his own character and without which no man can be truly great, however distinguished he may be."

There are many Republicans, for that matter, who will not be impressed by the fulsome praise of Mr. Aldrich or the childish boast that his name will be remembered when the names of his critics are forgotten.

POINTS OF FASHIONS AND FADS.

For children's hats nothing is more lovely than the popular panne ribbons. Velvet is again in flourishing style, both in millinery and in coats and dresses.

Men—the stylish ones—are now wearing knitted ties that match their silk socks.

The military coat, simply bloused and belted, will be prominent in tailored suitings.

A new-comer among hatpins has a big head of wood carved in bird or insect shape.

Muffs again are of mammoth proportions, but this year they are round, instead of flat.

Irish crochet buttons and lace appear as trimming upon some of the crepe-like tissues.

Gold bands are now much more fashionable for the hair than the erstwhile ribbon ones.

Moire bands are used for trimming the tailored hat this fall, in much the same way that velvet has been and still is being used.

It is no longer necessary to have stockings match the footwear; instead they match the skirt, the headgear, and even the gloves.

In some of the afternoon tailor-mades there is a relief from the dark foundation color of Oriental embroidery, or its effect, while the collar is of black velvet, satin or moire.

OWES HER LIFE TO

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Vienna, W. Va.—"I feel that I owe the last ten years of my life to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Eleven years ago I was a walking shadow. I had been under the doctor's care but got no relief. My husband persuaded me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it worked like a charm. It relieved all my pains and misery. I advise all suffering women to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. EMMA WHEATON, Vienna, W. Va.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases of any similar medicine in the country, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., from women who have been cured from almost every form of female complaints, inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration. Every such suffering woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

A COOK'S CREST.

The Decoration Worn by a Pompous Persian Chef.

A quaint story from Persia is given in a book by Mr. James. The author had missed from his saddle the brass plate inscribed with the maker's name. Souther, and was wrath at his loss, since the name went for much in the judgment of the east.

"One day," he says, "I was sitting in my favorite teashop with my friend Hassan Ali, discussing as usual England's perfidy in abandoning north Persia to Russian machinations, when a most dignified Persian entered the auberge. He was preceded by a well-groomed boy carrying his dust coat. The Persian bowed to me with great civility and passed into an inner apartment. As both man and boy bore burnished gilt crests upon their tall astrakhan hats I took them to be public functionaries of no small importance."

"Who was that, Hassan Ali?" I asked. "I do not remember having seen him before, yet evidently he recognized me."

"That," said my friend, with his small, beady eyes twinkling, "is your cook—yes!"

"My cook?" I answered in astonishment. "I took him to be at least the governor's chief of staff."

"Well, he is your chief of staff, which to him seems a higher degree—yes!" And Hassan Ali smiled his inimitable smile.

"But what in the name of good conscience is the impertinence that he wears upon his hat?"

"That must be your crest. It is a badge of yours!"

"On my honor, Hassan Ali, you must not make fun of me! I have given the man no crest, and I have never set eyes on him before!"

"I have seen the badge!" Hassan Ali continued. "It is undoubtedly your own. It has the motto 'Souther,' which is doubtless the old heraldic contraction for the word 'souther,' and also the subtitle, 'By royal appointment'—yes!"

It was, of course, the missing saddle plate, which the ingenious cook had "conveyed" as a heraldic decoration.

THE REAL TEST

Of Herpicide Is in Giving It a Thorough Trial.

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair "cures" may look nice and smell nice, but the point is—do they eradicate dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people everywhere are daily proving that Newbro's Herpicide stands the "test of use."

It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from oil or grease.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

"Old Stand With New Name"

INDIGESTION?

MOORISH SOLDIERS.

Their Methods in Battle and Their System of Signals.

At fighting on horseback the Moors are adepts and extremely mobile. But they are incorrigibly lazy and seldom indulge in night attack. When they attack in force the horsemen usually give a lift to the foot soldiers who accompany them or allow them to run alongside and hold on to a stirrup iron. The mounted men then make a charge, wheel round and retire and make way for the footmen, who crawl along the ground, almost invisible, and who rise to the attack if they come within striking distance of the enemy. As a rule, the Rifians prefer to lure detached parties into an ambush or defile and thus inflict heavy loss upon them. The mounted men seldom dismount to fire, and their firing, being from the saddle, is very inaccurate. Should the advance of the white troops be slow or hesitating the Moors effect a bold combination between horsemen and footmen and generally succeed in inflicting heavy losses on their enemy.

The prime tactics of the Moors are to delay the advance of an enemy as much as possible by mounted rifle fire until they can discern its extent and direction and subsequently to try enveloping the advancing force. The tribes also indulge in sniping, but not to a very great extent, and they also fight individually. They do not neglect opportunities for stratagem and can effect some very clever ruses. They are also guilty of abusing the services of the white flag in action.

The Moorish intelligence system is an excellent one, and the tribes are seldom without information regarding the movements of an enemy. They have also an excellent system of signaling at night by means of small fires dotted about the hills and ravines, which are obscured and revealed in accordance with an ingenious code of signals known to themselves.—Chicago News.

DREAM INSPIRATION.

Intellectual Achievements Born of Visions in Sleep.

It is well known, says H. Addington Bruce in Success Magazine, that dreams have stimulated men to remarkable intellectual achievements and have even supplied the material for these achievements. Thus Coleridge composed "Kubla Khan" in a dream. Tartini got his "Devil's Sonata" from a dream in which the devil appeared and challenged him to a musical competition. It was a dream that gave Voltaire the first canto of his "Henriade," and Dante's "Divina Commedia" is likewise said to have been inspired by a dream.

Many novelists on their own admission have obtained the plots for some of their best works from materials provided in dreams. A particularly impressive instance is that of Robert Louis Stevenson, whose "Chapter on Dreams" in his book "Across the Plains" should be read by all who would learn what dreams can do for a man intellectually. The solution of puzzling mathematical problems, the ideas necessary to complete some invention, have been supplied by dreams. Occasionally the dreamer has been known to rise in his sleep and jot down the information thus acquired.

In such cases he usually forgets all about the helpful dream and on awakening is greatly surprised at finding the record he has made of it, which shows that—as with the visions so potently influencing health—it is possible for dreams to aid a man in an intellectual way without his being consciously aware of them.

A Viceroy's Plain Living.

In Miss Juliet Bredon's book about her uncle, Sir Robert Hart, the "grand old man of China," for many years in charge of the Imperial customs service, is the following story:

"One of the most influential of Sir Robert's Chinese friends was the great Li Hung Chang. The diplomat liked Li's household because of the simplicity he found there—no wearisome courses at dinner, but fish and perhaps a dish of chicken with rice. Incidentally, as it turned out, he praised this frugality to his own Chinese servant, for the remark reached Li's ears in a distorted form. Next time Sir Robert went there he had to face a grand ceremonial banquet.

"You shall not have the chance to go away again and say that you have been fed like a coolie in my house," said the viceroy proudly at the end of the banquet.

"Nevertheless the very simplicity of your hospitality was what I most appreciated," Sir Robert replied. "But if you believe that I could have made any such remark and if you persist in altering the style of my reception I shall not come to lunch with you again."

The Room Was Full.

Rev. Daniel Isaacs once alighted at an inn to stay the night. On asking for a bed he was told he could not have one, as there was to be a ball that evening and all the beds were engaged.

"At what time does the ball break up?" asked Mr. Isaacs.

"About 3 in the morning, sir."

"Well, then, can I have a bed until that time?"

"Yes, certainly, but if the bed is asked for you will have to remove."

"Very well," replied Mr. Isaacs, and away he went to get between the sheets.

About 3 in the morning he was awakened by loud knocking at his chamber door.

"What do you want?" he asked.

"How many are there of you in there?" inquired a voice.

"There's me and Daniel and Mr. Isaacs and an old Methodist preacher," was the reply.

"Then there's plenty of you." And the speaker passed on, leaving Mr. Isaacs to enjoy his bed.

Belated Logic.

"Put yourself in my place, young man. Would you want your only daughter to marry a penniless youth?"

"Put yourself in my place, sir. Would you want to remain a penniless youth when there are rich men's daughters to marry?"

"You confess, then, that you marry my child simply for her father's wealth?"

"And you confess that you withhold her from me simply because of my poverty?"

"What other reason do I need?"

"What other reason could influence you?"

"This talk is quite useless."

"Quite."

"We have nothing to gain by it."

"Absolutely nothing."

"You take it philosophically."

"Why shouldn't I? Your daughter and I were married quietly a month ago."

"Great Scott!"—Puck.

Insanity in London.

Costermongers and engineers, one notes, rival each other in heading the list of maniacs provided by the commissioners in lunacy. If you don't want to be mad, be a clergyman. You will have about a one to a thousand chance of not dying in a lunatic asylum. It is a bit risky to be a literary or scientific person, but if you put your science into practice and become an engineer your prospect of lunacy jumps to the top, with only costermongers as your real rivals. Why this is is a mystery. It can't be intellect or hurry. Costermongers do not hurry, and they are not noticeably intellectual.—London Chronicle.

The Englishman.

Just as there is no being more disliked in his own country than the Oxford man who displays what is (most unfairly) described as the Oxford manner, so there is nobody who does more harm to our good name abroad than the Englishman who carries his insular conceit all over the continent—his evident belief that the people, the country and the institutions under his condescending review are obviously and painfully inferior to those he has left behind him. That is the sort of optimism which has to be kicked out of a man before he becomes a tolerable citizen of the world.—London Outlook.

Happy Parents.

Distraught Mother—And what with these beduction bills an' all, miss, I sometimes says to myself: "Appy are the parents what never 'ad any children," I says.—London Bystander.

The poet's verse slides into the current of our blood. We read it when young, we remember it when old.—Smiles.

Bird's Milk.

"I fed him with bird's milk." This curious expression was used by the old sultan of Turkey, while a prisoner on his way to Saloniki, with reference to his brother Mohammed, his predecessor on the throne. Abdul Hamid was lamenting his own fate and telling his captors how little he deserved it and how kind he had been to his brother. "I fed him with bird's milk," he said, as if that were the greatest kindness he could show. What is bird's milk? Not the Turkish equivalent of the milk of human kindness, but a European brand of condensed milk bearing on the can a picture of a bird on a nest.

His Conundrum.

"Mistah Walkab, kin yo' tell me de diff'ence 'tween a cold in de head an' a chicken coop wit' a hole in de rufe?"

"No, Sam; that's a hard one. What is the difference between a cold in the head and a chicken coop with a hole in the roof?"

"De one am a case o' influenza, an' de uddah am a case o' out flew hens, sub."

"Ladies and gentlemen, the vocal wonder, Professor Wabbles Izzeers, will now sing the popular ballad entitled 'The Lips That Caress a Stogy Shall Never Touch Mine.'"—Chicago Tribune.

TELEPHONE TALKS

The Long Distance System

One of the most valuable features of our service, to our subscribers and to the public generally, is our connection with the extensive long distance lines of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and the other associated Bell Telephone companies.

We own thousands of miles of long distance lines in the seven States in which we operate and in addition can connect any telephone in our system with lines extending to any other city in which a Bell Telephone system is operated.

These long distance lines are of the most modern and improved construction and are maintained at a high state of efficiency. The Bell systems, operating in various sections of the country, are uniform in their equipment and in their methods of operating.

Only by reason of this close traffic arrangement between the Bell Telephone companies is it possible to go to a Bell Telephone almost anywhere, ask for "Long Distance" and be put in communication with almost any point in the country.

This vast network of wires, radiating throughout the nation, is used daily in commerce and for social purposes by the banker, the farmer and citizens in all walks of life and our plant here is an important link in this great chain.

GAINESVILLE, —THE— University City.

Gainesville is conceded to be the most enterprising as well as the most beautiful city in the interior of Florida. It is located in the very center of the State, half way between the Atlantic and Gulf Coasts, surrounded by lands of such fertility as to be capable of producing a great variety of crops. In the heart of the truck-growing phosphate and naval stores belt. She has the best educational advantages in the State, good churches, with edifices which are superior to any town of its size in Florida, with large and consistent congregations; has a climate which cannot be excelled for health and pleasure. All these natural advantages, combined with a progressive and enterprising cosmopolitan citizenship, are sure to make a big city.

There are many natural attractions in close proximity to the city, some of which are Alachua Sink, Paine's Prairie, the Devil's Mill Hopper, Warren's Cave, and Lake Newnan, all of which are reached by private conveyance.

Spring Park Stock Farm, the largest and finest live stock farm in the State is only eight miles west of the city and is reached by a good hard road affording a most pleasant drive.

The farmers of Alachua county, of which Gainesville is the county seat "live at home and board at the same place." The temperature is very uniform, scarcely ever reaching the nineties in summer or the twenties in winter. The population of Gainesville is about eight thousand, representing nearly every nationality on the face of the earth, and strangers always meet with a hearty welcome.

The University of Florida for young men and the National Agricultural Experiment Station are located within the corporate limits of the city. In fact, Gainesville has so many things that we must be pardoned if we omit a few of them in the following enumeration of what

Gainesville Has:

ABOUT ADVERTISING—NO. 7

The Cannon That Modernized Japan

By Herbert Kaufman.

Business is no longer a man to man contact, in which the merchant and the patron establish a personal bond, any more than battle is a hand-to-hand grapple, where bone and muscle and sinew decide the outcome. Trade as well as war has changed in its aspect—both are now fought at long range.

Just as a present day army of heroes would have no opportunity to display the individual valor of its members, just so a merchant who counts upon his personal acquaintanceship for success is a relic of the past—a business dodo.

Japan changed her policy of exclusion to foreigners after a fleet of warships battered down the Satsuma fortifications. The Samurai, who had hitherto considered their blades and bows good enough, discovered that one cannon was mightier than all the swords in creation if they could not get near enough to use them. Japan profited by the lesson. She did not wait until further ramparts were battered to pieces, but was satisfied with her one experience and proceeded to modernize her methods.

The merchant who doesn't advertise is pretty much in the same position as that in which Japan stood when her eyes were opened to the fact that times had changed. The long range publicity of a competitor will as surely destroy your business as the cannon of the foreigners crumbled the walls of Satsuma. Unless you take the lesson to heart, unless you realize the importance of advertising, not only as the means of extending your business but for defending it as well, you must be prepared to face the consequences of a folly as great as that of a duelist who expects to survive in a contest in which his adversary bears a sword twice the length of his own.

Don't think that it's too late to begin because there are so many stores which have had the advantage of years of cumulative advertising. The city is growing. It will grow even more next year. It needs increased trading facilities just as it's hungry for new neighborhoods.

But it will never again support neighborhood stores. Newspaper advertising has eliminated the strength of being locally prominent, and five cent street car fares have cut out the advantage of being "around the corner." A store five miles away can reach out through the columns of the daily newspaper and draw your next door neighbor to its aisles, while you sit by and see the people on your own block enticed away without your being able to retaliate or supply new customers to take their place.

It is not a question of your ability to stand the cost of advertising but of being able to survive without it. The thing you have to consider is not only an extension of your business but holding what you already have.

Advertising is an investment, the cost of which is in the same proportion to its returns as seeds are to the harvest. And it is just as preposterous for you to consider publicity as an expense as it would be for a farmer to hesitate over purchasing a fertilizer if he discovered that he could profitably increase his crops by employing it.

(Copyright, 1909, by Tribune Company, Chicago.)

"That Which Is Worth Having Is Worth Advertising For"

The old adage that what is worth having is worth asking for is still true—true of the more intricate life of today.

The thing you want—whether it is a used piano or a home, whether it is a ready-made business or a lost pocket-book—is obtained readily through advertising, and with difficulty, or not at all, through other means.

THE CAUSE OF COLDS

Good Advice Regarding the Prevention of Coughs and Colds.

If people would only fortify and strengthen the system, the majority of cases of coughs, colds and pneumonia might be avoided. These troubles are frequently due to weakness, which produces a catarrhal condition of the mucous membrane, which is an internal skin of the body. When this skin is weakened it becomes easily infected with germs which cause many of the diseases to which flesh is heir. Healthy mucous membranes are essential safeguards of the body's general health.

An excellent aid in the prevention of coughs, colds, pneumonia, and such like infectious diseases, is a remedy that will prevent or cure catarrh.

We have a remedy which we honestly believe to be unsurpassed in excellence for the prevention of coughs, colds and all catarrhal conditions. It is the prescription of a famous physician, who has an enviable reputation of thirty years of cures gained through the use of this formula. We promise to make no charge for the medicine should it fail to do as we claim. We urge everybody who has need of such a medicine to try Rexall Mucu-Tone.

It stands to reason that we could not afford to make such statements and give our own personal guarantee to this remedy if we were not prepared to prove the reasonableness of our claim in every particular, and we see no reason why anyone should hesitate to accept our offer and try it. We have two sizes of Rexall Mucu-Tone, prices 50 cents and $1.00. Sometimes a 50-cent bottle is sufficient to give marked relief. As a general thing the most chronic case is relieved with an average of three large bottles. You can obtain Rexall Remedies in Gainesville only at our store—The Rexall Store. J. W. Among the business visitors to Gainesville yesterday was D. Willard McEldeen, a progressive merchant of Elzey. Mr. McEldeen reports the farmers and others in his section prosperous this year, with the result that trade has been excellent.

Harvey L. Hutchinson has returned from Reddick, Evinston, Orange Lake, Micanopy and other points, where he went Tuesday by automobile. Mr. Hutchinson is one of the most widely known traveling men in this section of the State and enjoys a fine trade.

E. L. Cushman and family, who have been residing in the Palmer cottage, North Gainesville, have removed to the home recently vacated by B. M. Heckard and family. Mr. Cushman has a fine garden site, and proposes to show his friends a "thing or two" in agriculture.

O. A. McIntosh of Englewood, N. J., a first-class plumber, has been employed by the Atlantic Plumbing Company and will arrive within the next two or three days to make his future home here. Mr. McIntosh expects to bring his family here as soon as he can secure a house, and it is hoped they will be well pleased.

Attention is called to the change of advertisement of Dr. C. G. Mixson, which appears in the professional column of this paper. Dr. Mixson, who graduated last year from the Atlanta Dental College, has opened offices with Dr. Alderman, over the Dutton Bank. He is a young man well known and popular, and is enjoying a fine practice.

EFFORT TO HAVE SEMINOLES LEAVE FLORIDA

Chief Tiger Tail Will Visit the West Next Summer and Others May Follow.

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 27.—That a portion of the Seminole tribe of Indians may be induced to forsake their favorite hunting grounds in the Everglades by messengers from the tribe in the West, and follow them to the more civilized life of the tribal reservation in the Indian Territory, now seems a possibility. If the deed is done a handful of Christian Indians will have accomplished what the United States Government gave up trying to do after a quarter-century of futile and bloody struggle.

A small band from the Territorial Seminoles, who have been converted to Christianity, is now holding meetings at Jupiter, on the lower East Coast, and the meetings are being attended by scores of Seminoles from different sections of the Everglades. Besides preaching the doctrines of their adopted faith, the visiting Indians are urging their Florida brothers to forsake the alligator trail of the Everglades and the hunting rifle and follow them to the tilled fields and the plow of the reservation.

Tiger Tail Going West.

Chief Tiger Tail, who is reputed to be one of the wealthiest members of the Florida tribe, and who is an Indian of more than usual intellect, was in Titusville during last week and in discussing the matter expressed his intention of going West next summer and trying it for himself. If he likes it he will sell his belongings in Florida, and it is probable that his action would exert an influence upon other members of the tribe to follow him. The change would not be as great for him, however, as for the average tribesman, for he makes his wealth by stock raising more than by the use of his rifle, like the majority of the Seminoles.

But though some members of the tribe may follow the steel-railed trail to the reservation in the West, it is very improbable that the entire tribe can ever be induced to go in a body. It is a well-known fact that the love of his native hunting grounds is as strong in the breast of the Seminole as is the love of his native State to the Floridian.

This was well illustrated by an incident at Ft. Myers during the Indian wars of the last century. The Federal troops had captured a number of the Seminoles and were holding them at Ft. Myers for transportation by boat across the Gulf, en route to the lands allotted by the Government for the purpose.

Seminoles Are Suspicious.

In the captured party was a chief who declared that he would never leave his beloved State alive. He was kept closely guarded, however, and was allowed to reach no weapon, as it was believed that he might commit suicide. He outwitted his captors, however, and kept his promise, for when the morning came for the schooner bearing the Indians to set sail he dropped dead upon the wharf a few feet from the rail of the vessel that was to bear him away. He had secured a bottle, and crushing the glass, had swallowed the particles. The exertion caused by the walk from the prison to the wharf caused the glass to cut him internally and to cause a hemorrhage.

From the day when the Government by force of arms deported a part of the tribe and then finally gave up the capture of all remaining, the Seminole has regarded Uncle Sam with suspicion. It was the fear that the white man was but planning a ruse to get the tribe together and then capture it in its entirety that made a failure of a great gathering planned by Bishop Gray a few years ago.

The Episcopal Church has done

BONNIE MELROSE.

MELROSE, Oct. 27.—Under the leadership of Council Commander Torlay seventeen members of Melrose Camp No. 176 went over to Waldo by boat on Monday evening to assist State Organizer C. H. Dame of Ocala to form a camp of the W. O. W. Ten members were initiated in fine shape, the work lasting until midnight. Some five or six candidates are to be put through at an early date.

The canals between Melrose and Waldo are now free from hyacinths and several of the small launches have been to Waldo without trouble.

The N. Itner property on the cove has been improved fifty per cent during the past month by the cleaning out of the underbrush and dead trees all along the shore. Mr. Miller deserves great credit for his work.

Miss Belle Hall of Orange Heights has accepted a position with L. W. Baldwin & Son.

Will Establish Kindergarten.

The Sun has been requested to announce that a kindergarten department, which will be operated under the auspices of the Gainesville Graded and High School, will be opened in the west room of the old Seminary building on Monday morning, provided the room can be placed in readiness by that time.

This department will be under the supervision of Mrs. Martinez of Van Wert, Ohio, a teacher of ability in this particular branch of education. The age limit will be from four to six, and those desiring further information may confer with either Professor W. H. Cassels or Mrs. Martinez.

The fee in this department will be $2 per month, each pupil.

School Is Prospering.

Wm. F. Barry of Forest Grove was among those who came to Gainesville on business yesterday. Mr. Barry is not only an up-to-date and successful farmer, but is also interested in everything pertaining to the good of his community, being a member of the board of trustees of the Stroble school, one of the best rural educational institutions in the county. He states that the school is progressing nicely just now, the attendance averaging well.

much for the Seminoles, and with the hospital at Immokalee has healed the sick and suffering as well as worked for their conversion. The Bishop desired to get the tribe together at a great banquet or gathering as an evidence of the good will of the church towards them. But the tribe could not be brought together. At the present time, however, the Indians regard the whites at Immokalee in more kindly light, for they have good cause to realize that the efforts made there are for the good of the Seminole.

Seminoles Failed to Go.

A few years ago it was planned to have a Seminole camp as an attraction at the State Fair at Tampa. Arrangements had almost been completed to bring some of the tribe to the city when it was jolled about in the tribe that a troop of United States cavalry was to be at the fair. The cavalry was a crack United States troop and was there to give exhibition drills. But there was no Seminole camp at Tampa.

The Seminole has an aversion for the ways of the civilized. He prefers to pass his life in the deep fastnesses of the great Everglades and the dense hammocks of the lower Gulf Coast. He grows sweet potatoes on the rich hammock land and the potatoes provides him with a ready market for the hide of the alligator and the fur of the otter. He is a son of the Everglades and in the Everglades he, as a tribe, will remain.

ORPHAN CHILDREN LOSE LIVES AT LYNCHBURG

All Were On Second Floor of Home When Fire Broke Out--Rescue Impossible.

LYNCHBURG, Va., Oct. 27.—Late yesterday afternoon the remains of the five children, who were burned in the fire which destroyed the Shelton cottage at the Presbyterian Orphan's Home, near the city at 4 o'clock yesterday morning, were recovered, although they were burned past recognition. A coroner's inquest which concluded its work at 8:15 o'clock last night, threw no light on the cause of the fire, but the verdict included a statement fully exonerating the home authorities from blame.

Later reports show that the fire was discovered by the housekeeper in her room on the second floor by passing through the speaking tube connecting her room with the kitchen. She was up to begin her duties of the day.

The five children were all inmates of the nursery.

The dead:

Lucile Moorefield and Ruby Moorefield, Lynchburg; Mamie Reynolds, Bath county, Virginia; Marie Hickman, Campbell county, Virginia, and Mary Poole, Davis, W. Va.

The children were all in the second floor of the wing of the building and they were caught by the fire in a manner that made their rescue impossible. Ruby Moorefield, however, was taken out of the building, but when she ascertained that the younger sister was still inside, she ran back into the burning building and lost her life.

The fire was discovered by Mrs. Priest, the cook, who was aroused by the roar of the flames. When she saw that it was impossible to get the children out by the stairway, the entire basement and first floor at that time enveloped, and it would be but a few minutes before the whole building would fall, she rushed to the third story and brought fifteen children down to the second floor, leading them to the veranda top, where they were taken down a ladder, several of them dropping into the outstretched arms of the older boys in the institution.

When these children were all safe, Mrs. Priest had to jump for her life, and in so doing sustained a dislocated shoulder, a scalp wound and an injury to her back. She will probably recover. While all of the escapes were miraculous, only one of the girls rescued was injured, and she escaped with a sprained ankle, sustained in jumping. Dr. R. H. Fleming, the superintendent, was away at the time of the fire, and there were no men about except some distance away in the farm houses. When they reached the burning structure it was too late to save the little tots. The women could not save them, for they barely succeeded in saving twenty-four of the other girls.

He Likes Gainesville.

Among the clever traveling men in the city is W. H. Beaven, representing the Wesco Supply Company, electrical supplies, St. Louis, who came on business connected with the Gainesville Electric Light and Power Company. Mr. Beaven is so well pleased with Gainesville that he has decided to make this city his headquarters while in this section of the State. He paid the city a high compliment in the remark that "it looked like the most substantial town" he had visited in this section of the South so far.

Term of Court in Bradford County Was Very Brief

State Attorney J. M. Rivers returned Tuesday night from Starke, where he has been in attendance at the fall term of the circuit court, Eighth Judicial Circuit.

Attorney Rivers states that this was the briefest term of the circuit court he had ever attended in Bradford county, as the docket, both civil and criminal, was very light. "I desire to extend my heartiest congratulations to Bradford county," he said, "because the people of that county deserve a great deal of credit for their orderly demeanor. I have been attending the sessions of the court at Starke regularly for several years, and that is the lightest docket I have ever encountered."

Col. Rivers states that there was a great deal of business before the grand jury, but out of this only three indictments, or true bills, were returned, and none of these were for capital offenses.

Alachua county congratulates her brothers of old Bradford on this clean record.

That Mysterious Malady At Athens Female College

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 27.—Regarding the epidemic of illness at the Athens Female College at Athens, Ga., which has caused a ten days' suspension of the institution, the president, Miss Mary N. Moore, who is also a member of the faculty, has issued a statement yesterday in which she says:

"The 175 girls in the school forty were taken sick of ptomaine poisoning from eating fish and while none of the sickness is of a serious nature it was thought best to give the holiday. To decide exactly what the sickness was, the State Bacteriologist of Tennessee came from Nashville and made a careful diagnosis and gave as his opinion that the sickness was ptomaine poisoning from eating the fish and the same report was concurred in by Dr. Cunningham Wilson of Birmingham."

Spent Another's Money; Will Go to Convict Camp

Because he insisted on misappropriating funds which had been entrusted to him by a friend, Enoch Malby, colored, who was arraigned in Justice Carter's court in Newberry upon a charge of embezzlement, was adjudged guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and costs, or spend three months in the "gaug."

With a dark financial cloud hovering about him, Malby was unable to raise the amount necessary for the fine and costs, and was brought to this city Wednesday by Deputy Sheriff Wynne, and in the event that he will still be unable to pay within five days, the time prescribed by law, he will be taken to the convict camps.

The prosecution witness in this case was Jesse Palmer, who declared he gave Malby money with which to make certain purchases for him, when the defendant appropriated the money to his own "needs and pleasure."

Malby will probably learn a lesson from this experience, and will know better than to spend another fellow's "dough" the next time he is entrusted with it.

Heart Disease Claims Gen. O. O. Howard at 79

BURLINGTON, Vt., Oct. 27.—Gen. Oliver O. Howard, last of the Union commanders of the Civil War, died at his home in this city last night. Heart disease was the cause of the noted soldier's death. He was 79 years old.

Last week Gen. Howard was in Ontario delivering his lecture on Abraham Lincoln. His last public appearance was at London, on Sunday night. On Monday he returned to his home in Burlington, and was apparently in his usual good health. Last night, while sitting in a chair at his home, he was attacked by heart disease and was dead when a physician reached the house.

Including Gen. Howard's service in the Indian wars, he was probably in more engagements than any other officer in the United States army. He was born in Leeds, Me., November 6, 1839.

JOHNSON MUST HAVE MET WITH FOUL PLAY

AND WIFE IS DISTRACTED.

States That Nothing Had Occurred to Mar His Domestic Relations in Any Way.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:

News has been received here of the mysterious disappearance of C. C. Johnson, a white man who has for some time past resided in Gulf Hammock with his wife and children.

During last month a number of warrants were issued for parties in the Hammock charging them with having cut cedar upon Government lands, and it was suspected by a number that Johnson was instrumental in informing them, so it is stated that a plot must have been formed against the man for his destruction.

His wife states that he left the house on the 11th of the present month just before dinner, and stated that he would return in a short while, but nothing has since been learned of his whereabouts, and she thinks that he has met with foul play.

The fact that he disappeared almost following the serving of the warrants by Deputy Sheriff Richardson has led the citizens of his section to share the belief of his good wife that he has met with foul play.

Sheriff Walker and a number of deputies have made a most diligent search for the missing man but have been unable to find any clue that would throw light upon the case.

His wife states that his habits were of the best, and nothing had occurred in his domestic relations to cause him to leave in this manner. He was fairly well situated, living upon his own homestead and what spare time he had from his home he was engaged in cutting cedar for the many contractors who operate in that section.

Death of Little Lewis Cameron.

On October 21, 1909, Little Lewis W. Cameron, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Cameron, died at his home in Boardman, Fla., after an illness of only a few days. He leaves to mourn his death a devoted father and mother and three little sisters, besides a large number of other relatives. The death of little Lewis cast a deep gloom over the entire community. To have known the deceased was to have loved him, for he scattered sunshine and made many friends wherever he went. He will be greatly missed not only by his immediate family but by everyone who knew him. We extend to the broken hearted father and mother and each member of the family our most profound sympathy, and may the Supreme Ruler help them to bear their trouble. We feel that his passing was only falling asleep at Jesus' feet.

Rev. Wadell conducted the funeral service at the McIntosh Cemetery to await the call of his Savior on the resurrection morn. 'Tis glorious to go into the presence of God, where the Lord Jesus has reigned supreme in life. 'Tis consolation indeed to those who weep when they weep not as those who have no hope.

A place is vacant in their hearts,
A voice they loved is still;
A place is vacant in their home
Which never can be filled.

Call not back the dear departed,
Anchored safe where storms are o'er.

On the border land we left you,
Soon to meet and part no more.

When we leave this world of changes,
When we leave this world of care,
We shall find those gone before us
In our Father's mansion fair.

AFTER SUFFERING ONE YEAR

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Milwaukee, Wis. — "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman, and I would like to tell the whole world of it. I suffered from female trouble and fearful pains in my back. I had the best doctors and they all decided that I had a tumor in addition to my female trouble, and advised an operation. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman and I have no more backache. I hope I can help others by telling them what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me." — Mrs. EMMA IMSE, 833 First St., Milwaukee, Wis.

The above is only one of the thousands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which prove beyond a doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, actually does cure these obstinate diseases of women after all other means have failed, and that every such suffering woman owes it to herself to at least give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial before submitting to an operation, or giving up hope of recovery.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health and her advice is free.

A SUCCESSFUL CROP.

Samuel Shaw Tells How to Plant and Cultivate Crop.

Editor Sun: Since I have won one of the prizes in your corn contest and you were kind enough to publish my letter and I am receiving letters of inquiry every day, I have decided to answer through The Sun.

In the first place, I will try and give my experience in growing corn. First you should break your land early, six to eight inches deep, with a turn plow, turning under all vegetable matter. Never burn your land; always plow in all the trash you have, and if your land won't produce grass and weeds, sow peas or velvet beans; for land won't do its best without humus.

Second, harrow your land with disk harrow in February, and just before you plant run over it with Acme harrow. Make rows six feet apart, open with seven or eight-inch shovel; if upland drop your seed two and a half feet apart and just use dirt enough to cover it, and leave furrow open. If low land, fill furrow two-thirds full of dirt, and drop corn; then fill furrow up with two furrows. If you are going to fertilize, plant thicker in drill, according to the amount of fertilizer you intend to use. Now we have the crop planted, the first step is to run one furrow in the middle of rows with a 22-inch wing sweep; next, side the corn with the bar side of the turning shovel, close, so as to shove some dirt to corn. Next take a sweep that will fit the bearing furrows and side close. A good hand will clean the drill and do away with the hoeing all together. Now we are ready for the plowing, which makes the crop. Use a No. 8 turning shovel with wing to corn, and be sure to lap the dirt over the drill and plow out the middle with same plow. If you fertilize corn you should put it sweep furrow ahead of this plowing. Never use it at time of planting. Next use 22 or 24-inch wing sweeps, as shallow as you can, not over one inch deep, four furrows to row, and your work is done. You should sow one-half bushel of fall peas per acre ahead of this plowing.

The claim I make for my corn 1909 proved good for twenty-five years, and I don't see why it should not suit the general conditions all over the State. I will sell what seed I have at 75 cents per peck, or $2.50 per bushel.

GUARDS WILL ENTER COMPETITIVE DRILL

SQUAD NOW PREPARING TO TAKE IN JACKSONVILLE CARNIVAL.

The Capital Prize of $15 Will Be Worked for by the Team From the Gainesville Guards.

The Gainesville Guards are now working preparatory to entering the contest for the capital prize offered by the Military Carnival at Jacksonville.

Sergeant C. R. Layton stated to the reporter on Monday that the company would show up most favorably and he believed that with just a little patience and hard work the squad representing the Guards would carry off the first honors at this event, which is to transpire next month.

The prize is offered by the Carnival association for the best drilled squad of men in uniform from the entire State, and as the Guards have in nearly every instance managed to capture such prizes it will not be surprising to see them successful on this occasion.

Each week from now until they are to take the trip they will drill and practice, and in the meantime those best qualified will be selected from among the number to represent the Guards in Jacksonville.

WILL HAVE GRAND EVENT.

Tison Speaks Interestingly of Marion County Fair.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:

Mason Tison of Ocala is here on a short visit to his parents and in the meantime to tell his numerous friends about the great county fair to be held in that city from November 24 to 26.

He states that a purse of $2,000 has been raised for the races alone, while the prizes for farming products will be apportioned in such a manner that a great number of premiums will be awarded.

Some extra fine entries have already been made for the horse races, and this feature alone will attract many thousands of people to the Brick City. The interest manifested locally by the business houses and citizens was never before at such a pitch as at present, and he thinks the coming event will be one that will place Ocala and Marion county far up in the ranks as a farming section, and all who attend will be highly pleased and entertained during the three days of the fair.

Catarrh Cannot Be Cured

with local applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. Was Arrested Monday.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:

E. H. Waters was arrested on Monday by Deputy Sheriff Bruton on a warrant which was sworn out by A. L. Jackson charging him with shooting birds out of season. There have been any number of complaints against the killing of quail out of season, but this is the first arrest, and this will have a tendency to cause others to be more particular. Mr. Waters plead guilty to the charge, but says he killed the birds for a lady who is sick at his house.

What a pity samples of Gainesville weather of the past week cannot be distributed as advertising.

Determined not to be left out of the struggle to raise the cost of living, even salt goes up a couple of dollars a ton.

One half of the world doesn't know how the other half lives. Those who read The Sun know all that is worth knowing about both halves.

"Walsh sentence stands." "Morse sentence stands." There are pitfalls in high finance. These two millionaires must now wear stripes.

Mr. Baer will have to look after the Geological Survey. It says there is coal enough in the earth to last more than seventy thousand years.

Halley's comet has been seen again, but probably it hesitates to make an official debut until Cook and Peary get through their double-shuffle.

The United States Patent Office pays its running expenses and has a surplus over. As there is no patent on its methods, other Governmental offices and departments might use them to good advantage.

The Palatka News expresses the opinion that Senator Tallaferra will not be a candidate for re-election. The Sun will wager a year's subscription that Brother Russell will soon discern that the Senator is very much a candidate.

The replies to The Philadelphia Times' query, "what would you do if you had a million dollars?" have doubtless a theoretical value. But in practice, what a man does when he has a million is to set about getting another one.

"Once I could go out on the streets and know every person I passed, but now I scarcely know half the people I meet," remarked an old citizen of Gainesville to the editor yesterday. Same here, brother. Which shows that GAINESVILLE IS GROWING.

A man who had existed for several years without The Sun was induced to subscribe for six months. Saturday last he called at the office to renew before the expiration of his subscription expired, when he remarked: "Gracious, it makes me feel queer to think what must have happened that I didn't know about when I was doing without The Sun. It was like a trance, or a delirium. I guess I was a dead one."

The Tampa Tribune defines The Sun's prediction that Broward will lead in the first Senatorial primary next year as "Poor Prognostication." Well, Brother Stovall, we adhere to the prediction, and predict further that he will be defeated in the second primary, as he was in 1908. And we will back our judgment by wagering the State Fair "certificate" for publishing the premium list against anything you may put up.

MR. FLAGLER'S GENEROSITY.

(Ocala Banner.)

"One touch of nature makes the whole world kin," was the exclamation of the immortal bard. And how true that is. How quick we are to weep with those that weep and rejoice with those that rejoice.

In Ocala's great conflagration we lost printing office and home, and we remember until this day the kindnesses we received from wholly unexpected sources.

An almost universal opinion obtained that Jay Gould was a purely sordid man and nothing could separate him from his dollars, but when Memphis, Tenn., was afflicted with a great scourge he telegraphed the mayor to draw on him for $5,000 a day as long as the afflicted city needed a dollar.

So far as we were concerned all the mean things said about Jay Gould immediately took wings and flew away! No amount of argument could make us believe that he had a bad heart, and we believe that Helen Gould inherited her generosity from her father.

It did not take the calamity that has befallen Key West to show the kindness of Mr. Flagler's heart, and the bigness of his soul, because both have been shown many times before, but it does one good to see that he is never happier than when lifting all forms of distress.

From the effects of the great storm that recently visited our coast he was by long odds the biggest sufferer. He lost not only in dollars and cents, but the great work that he is so anxious to see completed has been retarded, and it will be months longer in its completion. Yet in the face of his own calamities he wires to George W. Allen the following dispatch:

"Please present an appreciation of my sincere sympathy to Mayor Fogarty and the officials of Key West, and draw on me at sight for funds to relieve suffering there."

It will be seen that he places no limit to the amount—or, rather, it is only limited by the amount of suffering.

In addition to the above dispatch he also sent the following:

"Hon. Geo. W. Allen: Mr. H. Walters (Atlantic Coast Line) joins me in authorizing P. & O. to transport from Port Tampa and Miami free of charge supplies necessary to relieve suffering in Key West. H. M. Flagler."

He also wired the officials of the Florida East Coast line to transport all supplies for the sufferers, whether on the mainland or keys, free.

Few men ever lived with a bigger heart and bigger soul than Henry M. Flagler, and it takes calamities like that which has just overtaken Key West to sound their great depths.

We are sincerely glad that this generation has given birth to such men, for we know that the world will be blessed by their example.

The Times-Union waxes sarcastic when it intimates that if all that is necessary to prepare the Everglades lands for cultivation is to burn off the grass, now is a good time to do the burning. It would puzzle a Holland Dutchman to find a spear of grass above water to burn, even if the sapient advice was at all practicable.

—Miami News-Record. The present would also be a good time for the "suckers" who have bought lands in the Everglades through the beautifully illustrated pamphlets showing handsome residences surrounded by orange groves and sugar plantations, to visit the 'Glades and take soundings as to the depth of water covering their purchases. Former Governor Broward, who has been conducting parties from the West over portions of the 'Glades during the drought, could no doubt show them approximately where their holdings are located.

In one particular, at least, Gainesville has Jacksonville and Tampa "skinned a mile." She has a new, scrupulously clean hotel, which, for $2.50 a day, gives a guest first-class table fare and also a commodious, well-furnished bed-room, equipped with a bath, steam-heat, and running hot and cold water. Such accommodations in other cities of the State cost $3.00 to $4.00 a day. The Gainesville hotel, too, has its own garden and Jersey cows contributing to the menu. For these reasons it is fairly entitled to this free advertisement.—Punta Gorda Herald.

Cook is leading Peary another stern chase over the lecture route.

One Doctor—Only One

No sense in running from one doctor to another! Select the best one, then stand by him. No sense either in trying this thing, that thing, for your cough. Carefully, deliberately select the best cough medicine, then take it. Stick to it. Ask your doctor about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for throat and lung troubles. Sold for nearly seventy years. No alcohol in this cough medicine. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

Why try this thing, that thing, for your constipation? Why not stick to the good old reliable family laxative—Ayer's Pills? Ask your doctor if he approves this advice.

TRIBUTE TO J. O. LAFONTISEE.

A high tribute to the work of the late John O. LaFontisee of Jacksonville, who, with Asa L. Brower, conducted the Government's thorough-going study of the naval stores industry last year, was paid by R. S. Kellogg, Assistant Forester in charge of Forest Statistics of the United States Forest Service, in his speech at the Annual Convention of Turpentine Operators' Association in Jacksonville on Wednesday of last week. Assistant Forester Kellogg said:

"Another step toward increasing our knowledge of the naval stores industry was taken when, at the instance of Senator Tallaferra, the Agricultural Appropriation Bill for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1908, provided $10,000 for an inquiry into the destruction of forests by the production of turpentine and rosin and the sources and methods of the industry."

"To carry out the provisions of Senator Tallaferra's amendment the Forest Service detailed to the work Mr. John O. LaFontisee of Jacksonville, and Mr. Asa L. Brower, a graduate of the School of Forestry of the University of Michigan. With Mr. LaFontisee's energy and sterling qualities you were acquainted even better than were we in the Forest Service. We who worked with him sincerely regret with you his untimely death, and we both realize full well the real loss which it brought to the naval stores industry."

"Mr. LaFontisee and Mr. Brower traveled through every part of the South gathering statistics of production, and making a careful study of the long leaf pine forests. The facts which they secured and the conclusions which they reached give most valuable information upon the present status of the industry."

With all due respect to the officials of the Seaboard railway, we do not consider that they have shown much appreciation of the patronage accorded them by the people of this city in the erection of the depot building now nearing completion. It has some conveniences in the way of toilets, etc., that the old one did not have, but inasmuch as they had to erect a new passenger depot building it does seem that they would have erected one more creditable to the system. The building now nearing completion would scarcely be a credit to a town of five hundred inhabitants, much less one of eight thousand.

Through the courtesy of the editor's esteemed friend and partner during the eighties, Elmer J. White, who is now editor of The Whitehorse (Yukon) Star, we are in receipt of the industrial edition of The Dawson Daily News. It is without doubt one of the most beautiful specimens of the typographical art we have ever seen, the first page of the cover being especially appropriate and unexcelled in the "art preservative." The publication will be reserved in our library.

The Sun is a strong believer in probation sentences for violators of the law for the first offense. A jail sentence at hard labor, with a parole of the culprit pending good behavior, will do more to deter people from committing crime the second time than the heaviest fine that could be imposed.—Gainesville Sun.

Editor McCreary herein shows his knowledge of humanity and a humanity equal to his knowledge.—Pensacola Journal.

By ordering out the State troops to guard the Hurley tobacco region of Kentucky against night riders, Governor Wilson acts in full accord with the sentiment of all law-abiding citizens. The time when individuals may take the law into their own hands has long passed—there is no longer a necessity for a Ku Klux Klan.

Isn't there something which only a want ad. can do for you today?

DOING GOOD WORK.

Prof. P. H. Rolfs, Director of the Agricultural Experiment Station at the University of Florida, has returned from West Florida, where he was greeted by large audiences at the various Farmers' Institutes held in Escambia and other counties.

It is the general purpose of these meetings to promote understanding and co-operation between city and country, and thus hasten agricultural and commercial development, and those who attend the institutes will learn things that will give them new faith in Florida, and particularly in their own section.

Deep interest was manifested in the meetings in Escambia county, and a plan has been started to send ten boys to the University of Florida to take the course in agriculture.

Prof. Rolfs and his assistants are doing good work, and it is gratifying to The Sun to be able to note the increasing interest in the Experiment Station.

Misses Anna and Selma Tompkins Entertain in Charming Manner.

LOCHLOOSA, Oct. 27.—M. A. Muselwhite made a business trip to Island Grove Friday.

A. C. Hayman made a business trip to Hawthorn Thursday.

W. P. Tompkins made a business trip to Gainesville Thursday.

J. D. Caldwell went to Hawthorn Thursday.

F. M. Coleman, the merchant, visited Jacksonville Thursday.

J. N. Hayman, the efficient deputy sheriff and merchant; J. C. Hayman, S. A. L. depot agent, and J. O. Hayman, who runs the pump for the water tank, all took in Jacksonville Saturday.

Y. Z. Taylor of Largo spent a few days with friends here last week.

W. O. Sykes of Island Grove was over last week on business.

Many of the Island Grove people attend preaching here nearly every night.

Rev. B. T. Rapp started a revival protracted meeting Sunday which will run one week. He is meeting with fair success so far.

J. R. Tompkins made a business visit to Micanopy last week.

W. F. Caraway shipped three crates of beans last week, they being the first to leave this place this season.

J. W. Metzger shipped quite a few crates of oranges Wednesday. They were nice, and colored up fine. These are the first oranges to leave here for the Northern markets this fall.

No rain yet. No fall gardens planted yet, is the cry of the people in this section of Alachua. Things are awfully in need of rain in this section. Even cane is wilting.

O. R. Green has two log carts steady at work hauling pine logs to town for shipment to Jacksonville. He will ship several carloads this week.

Misses Anna and Selma Tompkins entertained quite a large crowd of the young folks Friday evening in the way of a card party. Quite a nice crowd was present. Many games were played and after the games refreshments were served of a most delicious nature—candies of all description, punch, oranges, cane juice, fudge, and many other delicacies. About 10:15 o'clock the crowd bid their hostesses good night and departed, thanking them for the pleasant evening.

R. O. McEwen, who is working at Zular, Fla., spent a few days last week here with his mother, Mrs. S. F. McEwen.

Y. M. Hulme and brother of Hawthorn were in town last week on business.

Adger Hayman spent last Sunday with friends at Johnson station.

There are still a number of married couples of New York's four hundred who have not parted.

IN PITIABLE CONDITION.

Young Drummer Temporarily Deported by Excessive Drinking.

From Wednesday's Daily Sun: C. C. Cash, a young drummer who has been in the Newberry section for the past number of days, was brought to Gainesville Tuesday by Deputy Tompkins and turned over to Sheriff Ramsey on a charge of insanity.

This man is in a most sad state of mind at the present time, due, it is said, largely to the excessive use of bad whiskey, cocaine, morphine, and probably other drugs, and it was seen that he needed medical attention at once, and Sheriff Ramsey summoned Dr. Dell, who stated that he was in a most serious condition.

From what could be learned the man sells computing scales and has been in and about Newberry for a number of days on a protracted spree, but the past two days he had become wholly unruly and it was necessary for the officers to take him in charge. He has some little money at the present time and his general appearance shows that he is a man who can command money, and after he has been restored to his right mind and cleansed of the opiates he will very probably be all right, but it will require some careful nursing and administering to him closely to save him from the present crisis.

He has been arrested a number of times at Newberry for drunkenness, but it was soon seen by the authorities that this procedure was useless, and it was thought best to send him here and turn him over to the county authorities.

PREME COURT JUDGE PECKHAM PASSES AWAY

NEW YORK, N. Y., Oct. 25.—Rufus W. Peckham, associate justice of the United States supreme court, died at 10 o'clock Sunday night at Coolidge, his summer home, at Altamont, N. Y. Death was due to a complication of diseases, heart trouble, diabetes and hardening of the arteries contributing. Justice Peckham had been in ill health for some time, but his condition was not serious until recently. Following the adjournment of the May term of the United States supreme court he came from Washington, with his family, to spend the summer at Coolidge, expecting to return for the opening of the October term. A few days ago his condition became so serious that his physicians said he was likely to die at any time, or might live for several months. Up to a few days ago Justice Peckham exhibited considerable strength and was able to move about the house. The circulatory system, which contributed to his illness, was first noticed about six weeks ago.

Alleged Attempt of Kelley and Davidson to Escape

Information was received in this city Sunday that an attempt at jail delivery in the Duval county jail, during last week by Messrs. Kelley and Davidson, and that the pair had nearly effected their escape.

Extra precautions have now been taken for their confinement until some disposition is made of their case.

The information concerning the attempted escape was very meagre, and came to Clerk S. H. Wiegman through a letter from a friend living in Palatka.

A little want ad. will accomplish big results.

NEWS FROM ARCHER.

Rev. Bridges Conducts Successful Revival in Religious Circles.

Oct. 24.—We have had the grandest revivals we have ever had in Archer. Rev. Mr. Bridges, evangelist, did most of the preaching. Rev. Mr. Yates, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Newman, the pastor, and Rev. Mr. Bridges, were all with us.

Rev. Bridges is certainly doing a great deal of good. His sermons were so impressive, all that he spoke so highly of that they experienced from sitting under his voice. He is a grand evangelist. Many joined the Methodist church, and a good many joined the Presbyterian church, and we were all sorry to have the evangelist leave.

OWEN'S CASE AGAIN POSTPONED BY COURT

ANOTHER RESPITE GRANTED BY
DELAY IN PROCEEDINGS.

Motion for New Trial on Writ of Error Should Have Been Argued on Tuesday.

R. H. Owen, tried and convicted for the murder of R. L. Smith in the western section of this county at the spring term of the circuit court, and who has been twice so near death's door that he could hear the creaking of the hinges, has again been respite, the result of some clever maneuvering on the part of Attorneys Baker and Broome, who are representing the interests of the condemned man, now in the Duval county jail at Jacksonville.

The story of Owen and his crime is too fresh in the minds of the people of Alachua county to require reproduction, as it has been published and republished in The Sun. Suffice it to say that Owen was tried by a fair and impartial jury, and was convicted of murder in the first degree, without recommendation to mercy of the court. He was sentenced to be hanged, and the date set for the execution was July 9, on Friday. At the last moment, however, a reprieve of two weeks was granted, which set the second date Friday, July 23.

The attorneys for the defense were active, however, and the night preceding the date set for the second execution, when it looked black for Owen, a second reprieve came pending a writ of error in the court proceedings, and feeling ran so high here that the man was taken to Jacksonville, in order to prevent a possible lynching.

Attorneys Baker and Broome on October 15 filed a motion for a new trial, on the ground of writ of error, and on Tuesday, the 26th inst., this motion was to have been argued before the supreme court.

Attorney-General Park Trammell withdrew his original motion in this case, which asked that the court dismiss the appeal and affirm the judgment and decision of the lower court, which found the defendant guilty and sentenced him to be hanged.

This case has attracted a great deal of attention throughout the State, and the outcome is being watched with considerable interest. Attorneys Baker and Broome, who were appointed by the State and have worked without compensation, have been very active in Owen's behalf, and should they succeed in staying the sentence of the circuit court, they will have accomplished a well-earned point.

The notice received from Attorney-General Trammell provides for a hearing, or argument, on November 2. In the meantime, Owen will remain in the Duval county jail.

Owen was rather weak physically just prior to being removed from this city to the Duval county jail, but his condition seems to be much improved now, and he is said to possess about the "healthiest appetite" of any prisoner within the confines of the prison. He has evidently been encouraged by the continued delay in disposing of his case, which means the saving of his neck from time to time.

An Early Blaze.

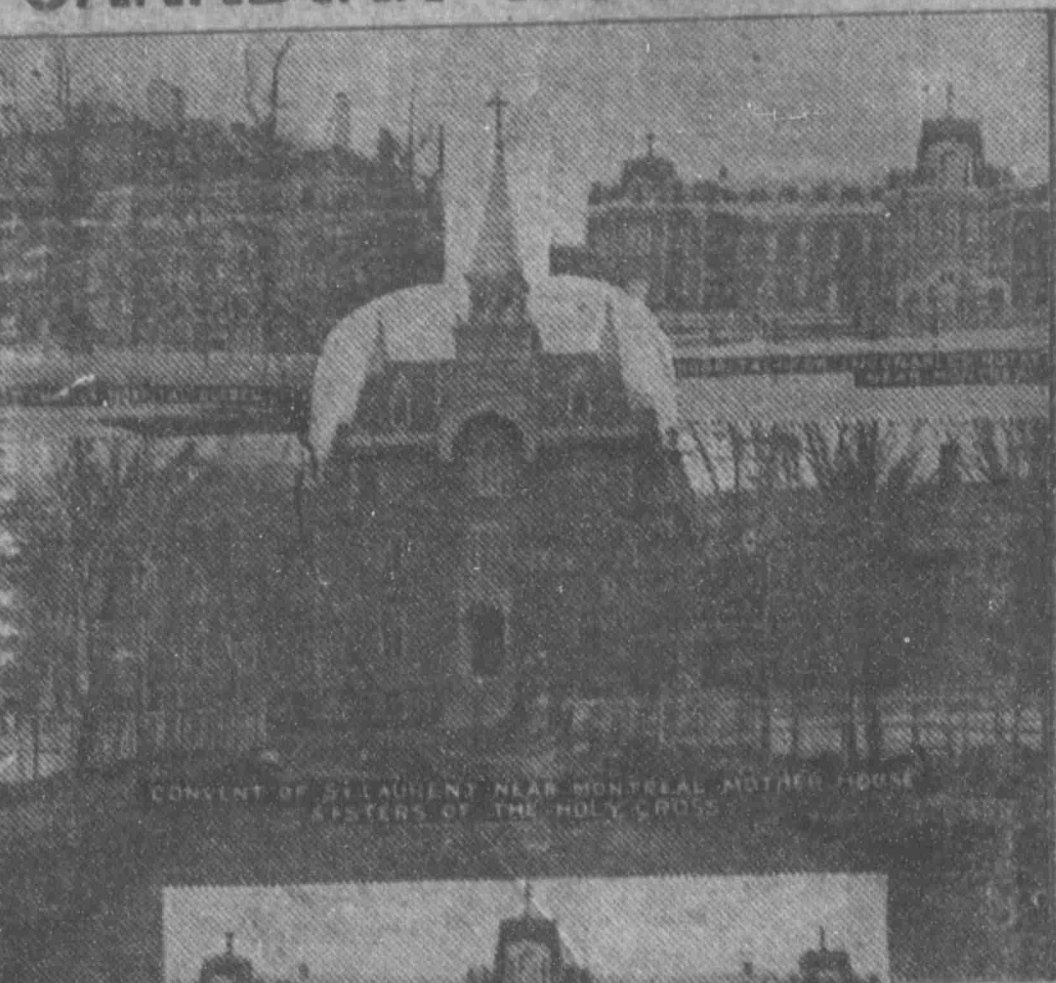

An alarm of fire from Box 54 called the department with its usual promptness to a house located near the colored school house on Tuesday morning. The blaze was extinguished shortly after the arrival of the fire ladders, and the damage was only about $10. The building was occupied by a colored family and the fire originated in the casing around the fireplace.

Has Much "Sweetening."

Claude Stokes, who owns and operates a successful farm near the Devil's Mill Hopper, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Stokes has been engaged in grinding cane during the past few days. About half the crop was converted into choice syrup, and the other half will be taken up and ground when the cool weather begins. He will make about fourteen barrels this season.

Fifty-six crates of fancy pineapples were shipped by Punta Gorda growers last Monday.

Notre Dame de Grace Hospital for Incurables, having used Peruna for several months, recommends it highly as an excellent tonic, and it is with pleasure that we add our testimonial to the others.

HAVING used Peruna for the past few months, for our sick and poor, we are happy to say that it has given us great satisfaction. The Sisters of the Good Shepherd, Montreal.

After a continued use of the remedy this institution has found no reason to change its good opinion of the remedy.

and expresses its satisfaction in the following terms:

"We found Peruna a relief in several cases."

"We can say it is a good tonic and we are very thankful." Sisters of the Good Shepherd.

One of the many hospitals which have found Peruna of value in treating old and obstinate cases of catarrh is the Hospital St. John, who write as follows:

"We are happy to tell you that your Peruna has given us satisfaction. Three patients have tried it, one 68 years old, Renoul Dupuis, afflicted with catarrh, is much relieved, more than he has been for a number of years."

"A young girl, 15 years old, had an obstinate cough, which half a bottle of Peruna caused to disappear."

"As to myself, the bottles have convinced me that Peruna is magnificent as a tonic. Before the treatment I could not walk for a quarter of an hour without experiencing much fatigue. Now I can walk a mile easily."

"Through these three cases we desire to make known to the public the efficiency of your remedy."

TAMPA AUTOISTS SELECT THIS ROUTE

BIG ENDURANCE RACE WILL RUN
NORTH VIA GAINESVILLE.

Representatives of Gainesville Association Attended Meeting at Tampa.

The Gainesville route has been chosen by the Tampa Automobile Club as the official route for the endurance race, which was to have been pulled off on November 4, but which was postponed until the 23rd, prox. at the meeting of the club and other autoists of the State at Tampa Tuesday night.

This information came by wire from A. M. Cushman, of the Gainesville Automobile Association, who, with Dr. J. H. Alderman, Major W. R. Thomas, W. N. Wilson, and B. F. Hampton, attended the meeting Tuesday night and insisted on Gainesville's right to be declared the official route from Tampa to the North Florida metropolis.

The message from Mr. Cushman was brief, but to the point, and most satisfactory. It stated that the official route from Tampa would be via Gainesville and the road posted by the Gainesville Automobile Association, and returning the autoists would take the East Coast route via Daytona, Deland, Sanford, Orlando, etc.

Posting the Road.

Immediately upon receipt of the telegram from Tampa a party in charge of George I. Doig left the city with an abundance of signs which had been prepared for the purpose and posted the road thoroughly between this city and Jacksonville. The party was met by Judge Syd L. Carter, who started in his machine from Jacksonville, and the road was posted by sun down on Wednesday. The Gainesville Automobile Company will also post the road between Gainesville and the Marion county line in ample time for the information

GREAT SHIPMENT IS LOADED FOR HERE

ONE HUNDRED CARS OF STONE
EN ROUTE TO GAINESVILLE.

This Shipment Comprises About All of This Class of Material to Be Used.

From Wednesday's Daily Sun:

The largest shipment that ever entered Gainesville, or probably any other city of the State, is now billed here in the shape of 100 cars of limestone for the Government building, which will arrive sometime within the next few days.

For the past several months a large number of workmen have been engaged on this extensive order, and it was all cut and shaped at the quarry, but a large part of it will have to receive the finishing touches in this city.

Superintendent Myers states that all of the 100 cars will arrive here at nearly the same time, for it was all cut and loaded at one time.

The work at the building is progressing most satisfactorily and for the past number of days they have been placing the granite around the lower floor of the building. The limestone will be used for the windows, doors and other parts, and will take the place of a number of places where it was originally intended to use granite.

A large force of bricklayers are at work and more will be added within the next few days to keep up with the setting of the stone upon its arrival.

and convenience of those who enter the endurance run.

Over a Hundred Cars.

Reports show that already more than one hundred cars, of various classes, have been entered, and this race is bound to prove a good thing for the sections of the State it traverses.

10,000,000 spindles have already agreed to suspend operations for 224 working hours between now and the end of the cotton year. Instructions have been sent to the best managed mills in the South making coarse yarn products to close the plants as rapidly as contracts run out, and to keep them closed until there is a certainty of being able to manufacture goods that show a profit at the time of production. One of the largest of the South Carolina mills closed Saturday. Taking the market as a whole, buyers are not yet ready to operate much at a price above a basis of 12 cents for cotton and merchants see no warrant for advising mills that better prices can be obtained in the near future. Apparently cotton speculation must run its course, or mills must take the chance of accumulating cloths from 14-cent cotton to be sold on a basis of 12 cents.

varieties of grafted trees, and a little annual care, and within four years they begin to pay back an annual profit, which will increase annually for a life time.

Let's figure a little: Suppose you have only one quarter of a mile of public road—80 rods—running through the farm, and your road is or should be forty feet wide, and you plant your trees two rods apart on each side of the road. In the fence corners, this gives you 80 trees; then plant 20 more trees around the house and barn, making 100 trees in all, costing $100. These trees, with good care, will gain 500 per cent on the investment every year for ten years, or even more, and at the end of ten years be worth $50 each, or $5,000—more perhaps than the balance of your farm. Does this look to you extravagant? Well, I can prove to you that it is true. Anything worth the amount on which it will pay a profit of 10 per cent. It is quite common for a good grafted tree to produce forty pounds of nuts at 10 years old, and the best varieties never sell for less than 25 cents per pound, or $10 per tree, which would be 20 per cent on the above valuation.

Now, Brother Farmer, why not cut down some of the worthless trees along your roadways and around the house and barn, and plant some choice pecans? But you say it takes too long for them to come into bearing. The grafted trees begin to bear as quickly as a pear or apple tree. But others say, the business will be overdone and pecans will be worth nothing. Croakers said that about apples sixty years ago and yet apple orchards pay well today and apples sell higher now than they did then. Let us all plant pecans for shade trees.

will run until its flues must be repaired, and from that time the added cost of each trip is from $3 to $10.

Coleman has been a boilermaker machinist, and is now a fireman. He was one of the crew that carried President U. S. Grant and Henry Villard over the Missouri division of the Northern Pacific railway to the point in Montana where the golden spike was driven to hold the rail connection of the eastern and western portions of the road.

NEGROES ARE IN GREAT DISTRESS IN KEY WEST.

KEY WEST, Fla., October 25.—Editor Sun: At a special thanksgiving service held at Cornish chapel, A. M. E. Zion church, on last Thursday afternoon and evening for the purpose of thanking God for the preservation of our lives from the recent hurricane, after listening to two able sermons by Rev. W. W. Blair, pastor of Cornish chapel in the afternoon, and by Rev. F. H. Faulk, pastor of St. James Missionary Baptist church, in the evening, a relief committee was appointed as auxiliary to the white relief committee to look after the unfortunate colored people. We will be thankful for any contribution sent from any of our colored friends, organizations or institutions. Rev. W. T. Collier, president; Rev. S. D. Houston, secretary; Rev. W. W. Blair, treasurer.

Poor deluded victims!
Continually sprinkling and spraying

What are you doing it for?
Trying to kill the catarrh germs?
Might just as well try to kill a cat with fresh milk.
Sticking a piece of chewing gum in the upper left hand corner of the right

germs.
You can't kill the germs that cause catarrh unless you get where they are.
You can get where the germs are by breathing Hyomel, the powerful yet nothing antiseptic, which is prepared especially to kill catarrh germs.
Just breathe it in, that's all. It gives joyful relief in five minutes. It is guaranteed by J. W. McCollum &

BAIRD'S
— The Store of Quality —

The Government surveying party under Harry L. Fisher, with Mr. Norris as draughtsman, and consisting of about twenty men, have moved their quarters from near Kanapaha to a point close to Newberry, in order to be more accessible to their line of work.

They are engaged in a survey that at present is being run from the mouth of the Ocklawaha river to the Old Suwannee river, and the proposed line crosses at a point near Kanapaha.

This survey is made by the Government in the interest of a ship canal which has been agitated considerably in the past number of years, and the reports will be made to the Government when the matter is finished.

The advantage of such a waterway through the center of the State would be of untold advantage to this section of the State. Besides it would prove a matter of great saving to the smaller craft and lessen the distance that is now traveled in order to cross from the Atlantic to the Gulf.

Notice is hereby given that an election will be held in Election District No. 8, Alachua county, Florida, on Tuesday, November 16th, 1909, for the purpose of determining whether said district shall become a Special Tax Road District, who shall be the road trustees of said district and the number of mills of district tax to be levied and collected annually for the two succeeding years.

The following persons are hereby appointed inspectors and clerk of said election: A. L. Webb, C. C. Holden, E. Waits, clerk.

This, the 5th day of October, A. D. 1909.

BOARD CO. COMMISSIONERS.

S. H. WIENGES, Clerk.

A Banquet

Spread before you would do you no good if you couldn't eat. What good can food do a child when as soon as it enters it's stomach it is eaten by worms. That's the reason your baby is ailing, cross, pasty-faced and thin. Give it White's Cream Vermifuge. It will expel the worms and act as a tonic for the child. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

NOTICE.

Bids will be received at the next regular meeting of the Board of County Commissioners, the same being the second day of November, 1909, for the building of a steel bridge between Alachua and Columbia counties across Santa Fe river. Plans of said bridge are on file in the Clerk's office at Gainesville and Lake City. The board reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

J. G. DAMPIER, Chn.

Attest: S. H. WIENGES.

A Shaking Up

May all be very well so far as the trusts are concerned, but not when it comes to chills and fever and malaria. Quit the quinine and take a real cure—Ballard's Herbine. Contains no harmful drugs and is as certain as taxes. If it doesn't cure, you get your money back. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that on the 15th day of October, 1909, I, as administrator of the estate of Martha C. Foreman, deceased, (with the will annexed), will apply to H. G. Mason, County Judge of Alachua county, Florida, at Gainesville, for an order to sell the following real estate, for the purpose of paying debts of deceased, to-wit: The S $\frac{1}{4}$ of NW $\frac{1}{4}$ and S $\frac{1}{4}$ of SW $\frac{1}{4}$ of Sec. 27, Tp. 8, R. 7 E. W. S. Yearwood of Melrose was among the visitors to the city yesterday.

Get G. S. Merchant & Co's. prices on groceries, feed and fertilizers before making your purchases and thereby save money.

Mrs. B. P. Boulware returned yesterday from a visit of a few days to friends and relatives in the eastern part of the county.

W. H. Gay, one of the old settlers of the West End and a highly respected friend of this office, was a visitor to the city yesterday.

See G. S. Merchant & Co. before buying your seed oats and seed rye, and be sure and call for the Florida stock and take nothing else.

Miss Mamie Weems of Atlanta has arrived in the city and will in future be connected with the ready-to-wear department of the G. W. Hyde Company.

Deputy M. T. Fraile of Bland arrived in the city last night with a negro in custody who was sentenced to serve three months in the camps on a charge of larceny.

Geo. L. Taylor of Palmer was among the visitors to the city yesterday. This was his first visit to the city for sometime and his numerous friends were glad to meet him.

C. D. Wood, one of the large merchants of Archer, was a visitor to Gainesville yesterday. He says that trade is good in his section and the people appear to be well contented.

D. M. Phifer of Rochelle was among the Monday visitors to the city. He says that very little rain has fallen in his section and the farmers are badly in need of a change of weather.

S. W. Burnett, a contractor of La-Crosse, was in the city yesterday. He states that considerable building is in progress in that part of the county and that much improvement is noticeable.

James Croxton, the county surveyor of Micanopy, was among the visitors to the city yesterday. He states that he is kept busy at all times and seldom has the opportunity to spend much time at home.

L. L. Hill left yesterday for Interlachen to look after the orange crop in that section for the interest of his house. He states that considerable fruit is already moving from South Florida and that the quality shipped is very fine.

H. A. Picket of Newberry was among the visitors to the city yesterday. He states that cotton is bringing a good price in that section, but the main trouble is that there is very little raised in his section, caused principally by its shedding during the rainy season.

S. L. Crews, one of the prominent planters of the Alachua section, was greeting his numerous Gainesville friends here yesterday. He states that a great many farmers are making preparations for their cane-grinding and that as soon as the cold weather commences this industry will be in full blast.

Mrs. J. W. McDowall and children have returned from an extended visit throughout the Northwestern States. They have been absent all during the summer and report having had a most delightful time. As soon as the alterations can be made they will occupy the Phillips house, on East Main street, which has recently been purchased by Mr. McDowall.

From Wednesday's Daily Sun.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Claude Borling yesterday, a fine boy.

Fancy celery for today's trade, buy it from G. S. Merchant & Co.

Joseph F. Owens, one of the citizens of Wannee, was a visitor to the city yesterday.

T. A. Thompson has returned from his old home in Saginaw, Mich., where he spent the summer with his mother.

Mr. Thompson has extensive phosphate interests at Clarke.

Deputy Sheriff Bruton and H. L. Owens made a short business trip to Newberry yesterday.

Now that the rain has come get busy and get your genuine Florida-grown seed rye from G. S. Merchant & Co.

J. R. Merchant and wife left yesterday for a short visit of a few days to the parents of the latter in Jacksonville.

Mrs. H. W. Walts has returned from a pleasant visit of several days to her sister, Mrs. D. L. Graham, at Mulberry.

Miss Maude Bruton has gone to Williston to attend the wedding of Miss Carrie F. Tenny to Mr. Elvin Bruton of Micanopy.

L. Baldwin of Newnansville passed through the city yesterday en route home from Ocala, where he went on a short business trip.

R. P. Lumpkin of Orange Heights was a visitor to the city yesterday. He was accompanied by his son, R. P., who came to spend the day.

F. P. Henderson returned yesterday from a visit of a week to Lakeland, where he has been looking after some of the orange groves of that section.

Dr. J. L. Cloud, one of the prominent citizens of Alachua and a foremost business man of the city, was transacting business in Gainesville yesterday.

Miss Annie Dickinson returned yesterday from a pleasant visit of several weeks to Mulberry, where she has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. D. L. Graham.

Mrs. R. W. Thompson and son, Howard, of Dade City, arrived in Gainesville yesterday and will remain here for the next several days as the guests of her daughter, Mrs. S. A. Ledbetter.

J. Burklim, father of the East Side clothier, arrived in the city last night from his home in Birmingham. He expects to remain here for the next several days visiting his son and meeting friends.

N. Baldwin, one of the planters of the Alachua section, was a visitor to the city yesterday. He says that about all of the cotton is out of the hands of the grower and only a very little remains in the field.

W. C. Dampier of Hague was a visitor here yesterday. Great preparations are being made in his section by the farmers for the cane-grindings and within a short while all of them will be engaged at this vocation.

W. G. English of Tacoma was a visitor here yesterday. He says that very little lettuce has been planted in his section, and that a number of farmers have lost what few plants they did have owing to the dry hot weather.

S. H. Register, the accommodating agent for the Express Company at High Springs, was a visitor to the city yesterday. He was formerly billing clerk in the Gainesville office and his numerous friends here were glad to again meet him.

H. F. Brooker of Trenton was a visitor to the city yesterday. He states that everything is lively in his section owing to the increased price of cotton, which made good times and that about all of the crop has passed from the hands of the growers.

A. T. and Hartwell Kelley of Prairie Creek were in the city yesterday. They had just made a trip to Palatka from their mill and state that the distance was covered in two and a half hours, which was a good record, considering the sandy roads in Putnam county.

G. F. Flinger of Tyler was a visitor to the city yesterday. He is now making preparations for engaging in the sawmill business at the above place and expects soon to be in running order. For a number of years he was a resident of this county and will be gladly welcomed back here again by his numerous old friends.

From Thursday's Daily Sun.

S. W. Suggs of Alachua was among the visitors to Gainesville yesterday.

Mrs. C. C. Myers, who has been making High Springs her home, has removed to this city.

Mrs. C. E. Melton, one of Micanopy's estimable ladies, favored friends in this city with a visit yesterday.

Ed Renault, the restaurant keeper of progressive Waldo, was among the business visitors to the county capital yesterday.

C. W. Banknight of Archer was in the city yesterday. He was enroute home from Jacksonville, where he had been on business.

Thos. J. Holden, an extensive naval stores operator of Hawthorn, was among those who spent yesterday in Gainesville on business.

G. S. Merchant & Co. have the genuine Florida seed rye and 90-day seed oats, the only kind that will make a full crop in this State.

Mrs. H. G. Rembert and children of Lawley are in the city, guests of the former's mother, Mrs. W. P. Garrett, at the White House.

C. H. Coles & Son, the jewelers and opticians, have a change of advertisement in this issue to which the attention of our readers is called.

G. C. Davis of Hawthorn has arrived in the city and will make his future home here, having accepted a position as salesman at the store of Royal Cook.

The many friends of little Sallie Merchant, who has been quite ill for the past few days, will be glad to learn that her condition was much improved last night.

Mrs. L. L. Sanders of Alachua was shopping in the city yesterday, and while here made a pleasant call at this office, renewing her subscription to Alachua's luminary.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Mathews of Tacoma, who are among the most popular residents of that section of the county, favored Gainesville friends with a visit yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Deveneau are rejoicing over the birth of a fine son, which event occurred at Hampton a day or two ago. Friends in Gainesville extend congratulations.

Miss Annie Scarratt has returned from an outing of several months to points in Maryland, New York and other States. Her many friends are delighted to welcome her home.

Dr. F. S. Roux of Williston is in the city on a brief visit to relatives and friends. Dr. Roux is a recent graduate of the Atlanta Dental College, and is enjoying a fine practice in his profession at Williston.

J. J. Haymans, the naval stores operator of Lochloosa, is in the city on a brief visit to his family. Mr. Haymans is possessed of a genial disposition, and his presence always makes his friends feel better.

Mrs. Flora Morrison of Morriston, who has been here on a pleasant visit to Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Medlin for the past three or four days, left yesterday for Ocala, where she will be the guest of friends before returning home.

S. H. Dempsey returned yesterday from a pleasant visit to relatives and friends in his old home, Chicago, where he has been for the past two weeks. He reports a good time—"every minute"—but is glad to return to his Florida home again.

Cleveland Miller of Nahiynta, Ga., after a pleasant visit to her sister, Mrs. C. E. Gibson and Miss Nizie Miller, 405 West Court street, has returned to his home. He was well pleased with Gainesville and may return here to reside at a later date.

The Gainesville Furniture Company—the Big Furniture Store—are advertising something in this issue which will no doubt prove of interest and benefit to Sun readers. It is the Barrett Flexible Curtain and Sash Rod, and something which must be seen to be appreciated.

E. L. Cushman and family, who have been residing in the Palmer cottage, North Gainesville, have removed to the home recently vacated by B. M. Heckard and family. Mr. Cushman has a fine garden site, and proposes to show his friends a "thing or two" in agriculture.

Sheriff P. G. Ramsey returned yesterday from High Springs, where he went to sell the stock of C. S. Rumph, recently defunct. The stock was purchased by Mr. Markey, while the butcher's and market tools, which formed a part of the assets, were knocked down to Alex Stephens, colored.

O. A. McIntosh of Englewood, N. J., a first-class plumber, has been employed by the Atlantic Plumbing Company and will arrive within the next two or three days to make his future home here. Mr. McIntosh expects to bring his family here as soon as he can secure a house, and it is hoped they will be well pleased.

A HALLOWEEN PARTY.

B. Y. P. U. Will Have Big Time Friday Evening.

The members of the Baptist Young People's Union are anticipating a big time Friday evening, the 29th inst., when they will gather at the home of Mrs. Jesse R. Emerson, West Masonic street, by special invitation.

Mrs. Emerson requests The Sun to extend a cordial invitation to all members of the society, who are requested to come "robed in the form of a ghost."

It goes without saying that there will be a bushel of fun for everybody at this unique entertainment.

Death of Mrs. Getzen.

Information was received in this city Wednesday of the sudden death of Mrs. C. P. Getzen, which occurred at her home at Fort White at an early hour Wednesday morning.

Deceased was the mother of Mrs. I. F. Bunch of this city, and the information came as a great shock to her.

Mrs. Bunch left immediately upon receipt of the information, hence it was impossible to secure any definite information regarding the sad incident, but fuller particulars will appear in The Sun at a later date.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Bunch in her hour of bereavement.

Ignited From Combustible Material.

Special Agent Chas. Pinkoson of the Atlantic Coast Line returned yesterday from Wolfenden's mill, near Worthington Springs, where he went to investigate the burning of an empty freight car a few nights recently. The car was standing on the Wolfenden tram road, or spur, when it was suddenly ignited. Mr. Pinkoson concluded that the fire was the result of combustion of a material contained in the car.

Country Is Prosperous.

Special Agent S. A. Shipman of the United States general land office has returned from Mobile and other points in Southern Alabama, where he has been on official business for the past few weeks. Mr. Shipman states that the crops have yielded well, especially cotton, and inasmuch as the staple has brought an average price of fourteen cents, the commercial conditions of the sections visited are good.

Mrs. Bashaw Is Improving.

Friends of Mrs. George Bashaw, who is confined in the hospital in Jacksonville as the result of an operation, will be gratified to learn that her condition is improving, and that the chances are she will be enabled to return home within the next few days. Her sister, Miss Ora Seagle, who went to Jacksonville Sunday, returned with a most encouraging report.

The Best Food for Workers.

The best food for those who work with hand or brain is never high priced.

The best example of this is found in Quaker Oats. It stands at the top among foods that supply nourishment and vigor, without taxing the digestion, and yet it is the least expensive food one can eat.

This great food value and low cost make it an ideal food for families who want to get the greatest good from what they eat.

Laborers, factory or farm hands, fed plentifully on Quaker Oats will work better and with less fatigue than if fed on almost any other kind of food. All of these facts were proved and very interesting information about human foods were gathered by Professor Fisher of Yale University in 1908. You'll find Quaker Oats in regular size packages, and hermetically sealed tins; the latter is best for hot climates.

An Early Morning Fire.

An alarm of fire was turned from Box 28, at the corner of Court and North Pleasant street, 1:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, which summoned the department to a cabin on North Grove street, occupied by James Carolina, colored.

The fire had been burning some time before the alarm was turned, hence the cabin was enveloped in flames when the hose company arrived. The firemen were successful, however, in extinguishing the fire before the building was entirely destroyed, although only the rear portion of the walls were left standing.

The shack was an old one of little value. The origin of the fire was unknown, as no one had occupied it as a residence for some time.

A citizens' meeting was held at Apopka last week for the purpose of nominating city officers. A bird was nominated for mayor.

Mrs. N. J. Arnold of Lake Wales, who has been sick for several months, died one day last week and was buried in Eden Cemetery.
